Approval in principle

Council gives nod to Grandin Mall proposal

The future of the Grandin Shoppers Mall looks brighter today as a result of action taken by city council Monday night. Council voted unanimously for approval in principle of a redevelopment proposal put forward by Grandin Shoppers Park Ltd.

MPC Chairman Barry Breadner told council that the company's first proposal had been altered to conform to the concerns of the planning commission and planning staff. A proposed apartment complex has been eliminated while four rooms have been added to the hotel, making it a 64 room, five storey complex. The hotel will house three beverage facilities, including a pub style tavern, a lobby bar and a 90 seat lounge. A cafeteria is under discussion at present. To provide for increased traffic, a parkade will be constructed at the easternmost end of the property, next to Grandin Road. A further two level underground parkade will be built on the site planned for apartments, which have been eliminated. This parkade will have five tennis courts above.

The proposal calls for the demolition of part of the existing mall east of Macleod's as well as the north portion, with the exception of Firestone and the Shell station. Everything west of Please Turn to Page 6A

Businessmen backing Grandin Shoppers Park

After some discussion - mostly but not entirely in favour - businessmen attending Wednesday's St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce voted to support in principle only the redevelopment of Grandin Shoppers Park.

Before Christmas several Chamber members had expressed opposition to the proposal largely due to the residential component which has now been dropped. Mr. Dale Huntingford, business co-ordinator at the City of St. Albert, told members that the 60 apartment units proposed for a site southwest of the Safeway store had been replaced with five tennis courts and a second level of Please Turn to Page 6A by directors of Heritage Canada. The directors will be meeting in Edmonton on the weekend.

Mr. Berton and the Heritage Canada directors will arrive in St. Albert about 10:30 for the tour and then attend a luncheon with directors of the Albert Lacombe Foundation hosted by the City of St. Albert. The luncheon will not be open to the public.

The locally based Albert Lacombe Foundation has recently appointed its slate of officers following its first annual meeting.

Local artist and historian

Arlene Borgstede is president, City councillor Barry Breadner is vice president, City Manager Bob Byron is secretary and Gordon Unger is treasurer. Jim Stanton was named chairman of publicity.

The Foundation has carried out preliminary discussions with the consulting engineer firm of A. E. Merk as to the feasibility of restoring Grandin House. It will also be joining the national organization, Heritage Canada, so as to be able to be informed on the latest developments in restoration and to take advantage of various grants.

Annexation looms ahead?

Council receives delegates with skepticism, caution

It was a wary St. Albert city council that heard a presentation from the City of Edmonton Tuesday afternoon. Edmonton Tuesday afternoon, and the meeting was not without its fireworks. The occasion for the meeting was a briefing by Edmonton on their boundary adjustment review, entitled Horizon 21. St. Albert was informed of the study because of the strong possibility that the final report may recommend the annexation of this city. The Horizon 21 group is visiting every municipality and district adjacent to Edmonton's borders.

On hand for the presentation were Edmonton Mayor Cec Purves, lawyer A. O. Ackroyd and Project Director Dave Podmore. The Edmonton study will cost one million dollars and employs 12 consulting firms and five consultants. A final recommendation is expected in about a month.

Mr. Podmore told council that Horizon 21 was so named to suggest Edmonton's future, as far ahead as the 21st century. The study is being done because of the need for long range planning regarding land use. Mr. Podmore said that the city must plan for the next century, setting aside land and looking ahead. Present pressures will also be reviewed.

Lawyer Ackroyd gave an historic overview of annexations and boundary adjustments in the Edmonton area, to show the pattern of Edmonton's growth and the philosophies which have led to those patterns. The summary began with Fort Edmonton (pop. 700) and moved on to 1915, when the city achieved an area of 40 square miles with the annexation of Strathcona. There was very little change in the boundaries from that point until Jasper Place and Beverley were annexed in 1958 on the recommendation of the McNally report. The report also recommended the annexation of Sherwood Park (then Campbelltown) as well as Refinery Row. Mr. Ackroyd said McNally believed that if industry chose to locate on a city's boundaries, taking its labour force from that city and availing itself of city schools and other facilities, then that industry should be responsible for paying part of the expenses. He said that this philosophy underlies Edmonton's wish to annex Refinery Row and Sherwood Park, and that this goal was not a Machiavellian scheme on Edmonton's part.

The next study was the Hansen report, which was not acted upon. This report recommended annexation as far north as Namao, in Please Turn to Page A 8

Protestant Board also hears presentation

Trustees of the Separate School District took time out of their regular meeting last Wednesday to listen and respond to the Horizon 21 people. They were told that any boundary adjustment recommended to cabinet by the LAB did not ipso facto change educational jurisdictions but that the Minister of Education made these adjustments.

Board members were also told that Edmonton had no intention of accepting any "piecemeal annexations" on its boundaries in the future and that it wanted a "major review."

Superintendent Elmer Gish asked Edmonton City legal advisor Ammon Ackroyd what was the probable outcome of that city's Horizon 21 project. Mr. Ackroyd replied that "the Horizon 21 study will be the most comprehensive study the government has ever received." In the past Edmonton saw the need for expansion as so great they could not see why the provincial government could Please Turn to Page A 8

Games logo unveiled

At a press conference this morning, the St. Albert Games Committee officially unveiled the logo to symbolize St. Albert's hosting of the 1979 Alberta Summer Games, to be held August 2-6.

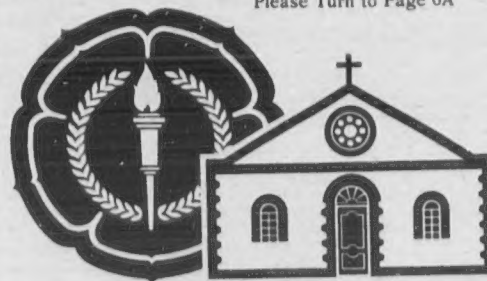

Traditionally, the Alberta Games Council logo is incorporated into the design of the host community's logo. As well as usually indicating a sports event, it maintains continuity from year to year, and from summer games to winter games.

The mission chapel in the logo is used to identify the host community, with the chapel representing a historically significant feature in the history of St. Albert. The mission commemorates the beginning of St. Albert, when Bishop Tache approved the site St. Albert now sits on. The site was named after Father Albert Lacombe's patron Saint, St. Albert.

The phrase "St. Albert '79" represents the city's beginning as a "city", as the lettering is the same as on the City of St. Albert's own logo.

On the color version of the logo, the rose (which is the Alberta Games Council's logo) is red, along with the phrase "Alberta Summer Games". Please Turn to Page 6A

Mayor may get raise

Mindful of the storm of controversy which nearly swept Edmonton city council out of office last year, St.

Albert aldermen last year cautiously commissioned a citizen review of aldermanic and mayoral salaries. At Monday night's meeting Gary Wetsch, chairman of the review committee presented the group's findings to council. The report and recommendation on salaries was accepted and referred to budget.

The committee found that the aldermanic salary level set last year at $4,800 was a realistic one, when adjusted using the Consumer Price Index to accommodate inflation. This puts aldermen's salaries at $5,448 as of January 1, 1979. When the CPI is determined next year, the aldermen's salaries will again be adjusted retroactive to January 1, 1980.

The mayor's salary was viewed differently, however. Feeling that the 1975 salary of $16,500 was not realistic, the committee added on the same percentage increase of 14.3 percent as granted aldermen. This resulted in a new base of $18,860, to which the CPI adjustment was made, bringing it to $21,406 as of January 1, 1979.

The committee also recommended that the Edmonton CPI on which the adjustment is based should be reviewed annually to ensure the index is a fair one. Mr. Wetsch said the committee seriously considered the idea of extra compensation for the mayor in the form of a Pension Plan, Insurance Program or additional payments for certain responsibilities. However, the committee felt it did not have sufficient information to investigate this and instead recommended that the city should consider this.

In summing up the committee's findings Mr. Wetsch said the committee had regarded the mayor's position as full time. He expressed some disappointment that the committee had not been able to come up with a unique approach to the matter, but said the committee had realized that no other municipality had been able to bring about dramatic changes either.

Members of council extended their compliments to Mr. Wetsch and the committee and expressed their gratitude to them.

BOA CHOKER IN STYLE

High fashion in St. Albert? Model, Rita Carter displays the latest 'New York fashion' in her home, with cat Mystrom and 'fashionable' boa constrictor, Bell.

Boa choker no new fad

By Al Popil

Remember last week the Gazette reported that a young woman entered the Settlement Restaurant with a boa constrictor draped over her shoulders, startling a few male patrons? At the time of her entry she had stated that the practice was in high fashion in New York and thought it was a 'fun' thing to do here in St. Albert. However, a more complex tale explains the reptile's debut as a fashion accessory around the neck of model Rita Carter.

It all started about three months ago when Rita's roommate lost her pet boa constrictor inside the house they shared. The snake didn't turn up and the pair parted company as Rita was preparing to marry radio announcer John Carter. However, on the nuptial day Rita got a call from her former landlady, announcing that exterminators were going to be brought in to find the sneaky serpent. During the course of the conversation a scream was heard in the background heralding the discovery of the boa, much to the dismay of the new tenant's wife. Rita quickly retrieved the erring snake to the delight of the new tenants. Thus, a glowing friendship was resumed between Rita and Bell the boa.

As to the Settlement encounter, well, that was an escapade. Rita thought of the 'fashion accessory' ruse to slip by the restaurant staff. Asked whether she would do it again the answer came back a reassuring no.

So for now the daughter of radio announcer Steve Woodman and wife of CJCA's John Carter is content to leave the snake to climb the rubber plant.

Protestant school board may change name

The cumbersome "misleading and inaccurate" handle now attached to the Separate school district will likely soon be dropped.

Trustee Gary Hodgins has asked that the administration be directed to explore the "implications and ramifications" of changing the name from St. Albert Protestant Separate School District #6 to St. Albert Board of Education #6. Trustee Hodgins said the present name was "misleading and inaccurate" in obvious reference to the various religions now represented by and within the District.

Just prior to Trustee Hodgins' motion, the Board had heard a delegation from the City of Edmonton on the subject of that City annexing

TRUSTEE HODGINS
...Name is "misleading"

St. Albert. Trustee Ernie Wynychuk couldn't resist the opportunity presented by this situation and retorted, "I was worried for a minute that Mr. Hodgins' had been completely swayed Mr. Ackroyd (City of Edmonton solicitor).

Mr. Hodgins name-change idea was apparently coincident on the minds of other trustees according to Superintendent Elmer Gish who had just recently spoke to some of them, independently, on the subject.

Trustee Hodgins' choice of name seemed to sit well with the other members and they voted unanimously to support his position.

Breadner bristles at Gazette story

Without mentioning any names, Alderman Barry Breadner lashed out at a story which appeared in last week's issue of the Gazette. Mr. Breadner rose during the question and answer session of Monday night's council meeting to rebut statements made by MLA Ernie Jamison in an interview with Gazette staff concerning the regionalizing of the St. Albert sewer line. In the interview, Mr. Jamison stated that "The fact of the matter is, St. Albert has little capital investment in the sewer line." He went on to say "that the city had borrowed the money to purchase the line, and that an extensive debenture of "six to seven million dollars" is outstanding, upon which interest payments of about a half-million dollars annually is being paid out.

Mr. Breadner said these were "erroneous statements made by people who should know better." He stated that a request for information to the city manager regarding the status of the sewer line payments revealed that the city has approximately $5 million equity in the facility. To arrive at this figure, Mr. Breadner used an estimate of the present day value of the line, which he said would be about $8.5 million, in "conservative" figures. He said that Mr. Byron's figures revealed that 3.4 million dollars were outstanding, plus $273,847 in shielded debenture interest. This indicates that a total of $3,828,213 is owing on the facility. When this is subtracted from Mr. Breadner's estimated current value of 8.5 million, a figure of $4,671,787 emerges as the city's equity in the line.

Mr. Breadner went on to say that the province was proposing that the city's five million dollar equity in the facility be appropriated for one dollar. He compared this to expropriating a house in which the owner has 60 percent equity and claiming that this is being done to save the owner the interest payments.

St. Albert Socreds elect interim executive

A small but enthusiastic group of Social Credit party members turned out at The Royal Canadian Legion, St. Albert, last Thursday night to ponder party strategy in this riding for the coming provincial election and elect an interim-executive. The meeting was of short duration as two key members of the executive were unavoidably absent.

Social Credit Executive Director Eric Lingau told those assembled that the decision to fight the incumbent MLA at the nomination meeting level had had an adverse effect on Social Credit chances in this riding. However, he said that the Social Credit would field a full slate of candidates in Alberta, and St. Albert would be in no exception.

Mr. Lingau said he felt the immediate task ahead of the party was one of rebuilding. He said he expected "no miracles" in the forthcoming election as the rebuilding process would "take a while". However, he stated unequivocally that "in five years the Social Credit will form a government -- and you can quote me!" He expressed pleasure at the number of young people in attendance at the meeting.

On a province-wide basis, Mr. Lingau had a more optimistic view of the party's chances. He said party members were convinced that Social Credit would make substantial gains in the election, and pointed out that provincial governments in Alberta which are given huge mandates are usually followed in the next election by a stronger opposition. His personal prediction was that Social Credit would take 20 seats. Mr. Lingau spoke enthusiastically of candidates which have been nominated in Edmonton-Belmont, Innisfail and Camrose. He remarked that the party had moved slowly in selecting candidates as they wished to choose the best candidates possible. However, of the 79 seats available after redistribution Social Credit has nominated 33 candidates.

As for St. Albert, Mr. Lingau said that Social Credit was aiming not at this election but the next one. However, he said that the candidate chosen for the upcoming contest would have a "chance to get his feet wet".

After Mr. Lingau's remarks, the group went on to choose an interim executive with officers as follows:

Acting President, Reg Petch; Vice Presidents, Peter Zudema and Joe Murray; Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Yurkiw. The date for the annual meeting was not established due to the absence of two members of the executive.

Trustee likely to receive more money

A notice of motion put forward by the Protestant School District's Finance Chairman Scott Friesse will give Board members two additional weeks to consider a raise in pay for themselves.

Trustee Friesse's notice called for an increase in honoraria and expenses of 7.4 percent. The raise would give each trustee a total of $3,866.40 up to $266.40 from a pay hike last June that brought trustees to $3,600 from $1,760 per year. The chairman of the Board will see his honoraria and expenses increase to $4,510.08 if the motion should receive majority support at the Board's meeting January 24.

The pay hike would keep trustees at an honoraria level $1,300 above the trustees of the smaller Catholic School District.

Comparisons with other districts are more difficult due to different methods of paying trustees. Trustees in the larger Leduc and Strathcona systems are paid on a per diem basis (meetings attended). Each meeting attended by trustees in the 720 teacher Strathcona district, is worth $80 to each individual and $105 to the chairman. In 1978 this worked out to a sum in the area of $10,000 but this should be "considerably larger" in 1979 according to

FINANCE CHAIRMAN
SCOTT FRIESSE

Strathcona Superintendent Gordon Rancier.

Asked why, Strathcona chose to pay on a per diem basis Dr. Rancier said, "it is the general feeling that people sound energetic at first but tend to ease off a little once into the job with an annual salary."

Superintendent Elmer Gish of the St. Albert Protestant Separate School District said "the basis for the philosophy (of an annual honorarium) was that most of the trustees attended an equal number of meetings and on that basis they would make it all equal for everybody." Mr. Gish also said the annual pay basis simplified the accounting pro-

Trustees in the County of Leduc (6,200 pupils vs 4,700 in St. Albert) are paid $60 per meeting. The superintendent did not have the figures available on an annual basis but based on a similar number of meetings as Strathcona trustees would receive about $6,000.

St. Albert Protestant has traditionally paid a very low honoraria to its trustees with little or no attention paid to salary for many years. The newly elected and younger trustees have taken it upon themselves to bring the honoraria up to a level close to other school districts and commensurate with the time involved.

Sorority members receive honours

Xi Phi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, has recently honoured two of its members.

Marg Krastel has been chosen Rose of the Year and Maureen Anderson has been named Valentine Queen. The Rose of the Year is awarded annually to a sorority member who broadens her personal horizons while continuing to meet obligations to her family and sorority. The Valentine Queen award recognizes a member's contributions to her chapter. Mrs. Anderson will represent Xi Phi at the Valentine Ball being held February 10 in the Edmonton Plaza.

Mrs. Krastel will be honoured with other recipients from Edmonton and area at a tea January 21 and Mrs. Anderson will attend a cocktail party January 25 for all queens and princesses.

The chapter has voted to increase the amount of its scholarship to the 1979 Kiwanis Music Festival. A $50 scholarship will be awarded for the best string performance.

Xi Phi has been notified that a small plaque will be placed at the Fire Hall to acknowledge the chapter's contribution to St. Albert paramedic unit.

Members are currently preparing for the St. Albert Heart Fund. They will assume duties as co-organizers, area captains and canvassers. Blitz night is February 14. Contributions to the Heart Fund support research into heart disease and strokes. St. Albert residents are asked to be generous when a canvasser calls.

Macleod's will remain except the bakery which would become the south entrance to the mall.

An office complex is slated for the northeast sector of the complex. These offices will house various professional people, including those using the new provincial courthouse building on St. Michael street.

City Manager Bob Byron explained the new complex takes into account the existing access and parking problems at the present mall, and is planned to eliminate some of these difficulties. The Grandin Road hill problem would be partially remedied by the alteration of the Grandin Road access to make it a right-in, right-out system. A median will be installed on this road as far as Glenview to stop left-hand turns into the complex. The access by the liquor store will be changed to a right-in, right-out system. One access on Sir Winston Churchill Avenue will be eliminated.

Mr. Byron said that a proposal for redevelopment should be considered in a different light from a standard new project. Council should consider what would happen to the Mall area if the redevelopment was not approved, he suggested. He listed several improvements that would result from the implementation of the proposal. These include better and increased parking, better access and more pleasing aesthetics. In regard to the latter, many improvements would ensue, he said. The rear view of the complex would be obscured by a berm and plantings, and the present mixture of architectural styles will be consolidated. The developers have agreed to landscape Grenadier Park and bike trails and walkways may be installed.

FINANCIAL BENEFIT

The project would be a financial boon to the city as well, bringing in $225,000 in tax revenue, which is one-quarter of the revenue anticipated from Campbell Industrial Park, a project which will cost $9-10 million. It is expected that the complex will stimulate the development of the downtown core, as well as providing alternative retail locations and facilities needed for commercial and retail growth. The entire project will be completed in one phase, and it is anticipated that construction will take about one and one-half years.

Aldermen all expressed their support for the proposal, but Aldermen Smith and Shields had reservations about giving approval at this stage in the proceedings. Mrs. Smith did not wish to make a commitment before the two public hearings which are required and Mr. Shields thought residents in the immediate area should have a chance to meet with staff and developers before approval was granted. However after some discussion, it was decided that the previously held public meeting and the two public hearings parking, in Grandin Shoppers Park Ltd.'s most recent proposal. The addition of a second level of parking brings the parking ratio at the shopping centre up to city standards.

Mr. Huntingford also said the financial complex should offer space at lower rates than the Regional Shopping Centre being developed by Abacus. It should be completed by the spring of 1980 if construction commences this spring. When finished it will provide $250,000 in tax revenues to City coffers; a considerable increase from the current $94,000. The parking component will triple the present available parking space to 1060 stalls.

MOTION BROUGHT FROM TABLE

John Dixon resupported a motion he had made before Christmas which had been tabled until the Chamber had an opportunity to gather more information on the proposal. In asking that the Chamber support, in principle, the redevelopment Mr. Dixon said he was in favour of strengthening the downtown core and increasing St. Albert's commercial space. He said that the residential component had been the only real hang-up and this had now been eliminated. Without the redevelopment, said Mr. Dixon, there would be a shift in development from the downtown core (likely toward the Regional Shopping Centre) which would be against the city's goal.

Royal Bank Manager John Grave had reservations about traffic problems he felt would stem from the redevelopment. He said a shopping centre should have four sides. "Basically, as I see it, that site was never meant for a shopping centre. You have got to look at its location. I think it is completely unnecessary to expand as I see it." Mr. Grave felt the median on Grandin Road (to be constructed if the plans get the go-ahead) and the layout of exits and entrances to the centre would create a large and unwanted traffic flow through the Grandin area.

Later in the meeting Mr. Grave said he would withdraw his objection if the Chamber's motion was to support in principle only. This, he said, would give individuals plenty of time to voice objections at public hearings; two of which will be necessary before council gives approval.

Mr. Huntingford replied to the traffic question by saying the problem was intensified at present because the centre was serving the entire community. New developments, including the Regional Shopping Centre, would take the pressure off Grandin Mall which would mostly be used by residents of Grandin. He said that Mr. Grave was right when he said a shopping centre should have four sides but that the centre was in existence now. The developer was trying to move from a suburban shopping centre to a complex more suitable for the downtown area. Mr. Huntingford said Grandin Shoppers Park Ltd. was working with the City on traffic problems.

Bill Gardiner of Standard General asked members whether the Chamber would be willing to take a stand on other issues which may arise in the future. He said that members should consider this point when they voted. He also hinted that he may bring an issue before them when the area structure plan for Bellerose Park North (Standard General is located in Bellerose Park North) comes forth from the City.

The idea of the Chamber taking a stand on this sort of issue caught the attention of several members. Sweetheart Jewellery owner Pat Hauptman said the Chamber should begin taking stands on these issues and Bank of Montreal manager and Chamber President Therien Bennett agreed that the Chamber should express its opinion on various proposals.

Ray Gibbon also supported the concept of taking a stand. "I feel that it is imperative that the Chamber make recommendations on these issues. He also said that parking shouldn't create any problems as the actual commercial space is being increased only slightly and commercial shops attract traffic. He said the centre was experiencing parking problems now, implying that the tripling of stalls would solve these.

Members voted unanimously to support the redevelopment in principle. A letter was sent to the City stating the Chamber's stand.

Kiwanis Music Festival to be biggest yet

The St. Albert Kiwanis Music Festival Society appears to have organized their best festival to date. Chairman Brian Davy and Secretary Sandra Goodall say the festival has been growing each year as music teachers get to know of its quality. And the festival is not totally Bach and Beethoven as most people might think. "It really is open to anyone who is musically inclined," says chairman Davy who emphasized the Society's desire to reach as many musicians in our community as possible and get them involved. The Society has produced a local syllabus aimed directly at garnering community involvement. "If a kid plays an electric guitar we'd like to see him here," added Mr. Davy. He did stress that the Festival was not "an amateur night in St. Albert" and that individuals or groups should be "prepared and practised."

In the past St. Albert and area residents did not have the choice of taking part in a festival in their own community and travelled to Edmonton. Mr. Davy said he felt citizens, of the smaller communities in particular, welcomed the opportunity to perform in St. Albert where they were more comfortable. Some participants from last year's festival were recommended to take part in provincials and one placed second only 1/2 mark out of first in her piano class. The possibility also exists for a trip to the nationals if one is proficient enough.

One innovative idea now in the works is a festival workshop. The intimacy and personal involvement possible in a workshop setting can do nothing but good for the growth of musicians young and old.

The Society is also looking forward to receiving entries in the creative music class for composers. The music can be played by someone other than the composer, taped and submitted with manuscript to the adjudicators. The national winner will have the work published.

Entries to the Festival (March 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23) must be in by February 5 to the Executive Secretary, Box 9, St. Albert, Alberta.

City council received an update on the costs of the summer games at Monday night's meeting of council, but the delay in the city's master recreation complicated discussion of the estimates.

In a memo presenting the cost projections, City Manager Bob Byron states that the total cost could go to $450,000. It is hoped that much of this can be funded through a grant under the Multi-Recreational Grant Program. However, before any such grant is approved, the city must have submitted its parks and recreation master plan.

However, aldermen were reluctant to rush through a report of the magnitude of the master recreation plan in order to be ready for the Games, as the games and the recreation plan were considered two separate issues.

To tie the Games to the Grant which is tied to the Master Plan would be "piecemeal planning," said Ald. Rod Thronson.

After some deliberation it was moved that staff be directed to prepare a Parks and Recreation Master Plan to satisfy the requirements of the Major Recreation and Cultural Facilities Program. Discussion followed as to whether the Plan should be an in-house effort or if a consulting firm should be brought in.

"Community services has less persons than ever before -- they say they haven't got enough personnel," said Ald. Thronson. He also referred to the "newness of the Community Services Director" as another reason for bringing in outside assistance. However, this was thought to reflect criticism of staff which was not intended.

so it was decided to let the staff prepare the Plan, requesting help if necessary.

With the Master Plan

taken care of the matter of the Games facilities was left unresolved for the present.

cluding St. Albert west to the Stony Plain reserve boundary and east including Sherwood Park.

In 1973, the city attempted to by-pass the Local Authorities Board and appealed directly to Cabinet to annex St. Albert, Sherwood Park and Refinery Row. However, this move was unsuccessful. Next came the Alberta Land Use Forum in 1976 which recommended that the urban centres surrounding a large city be amalgamated. In 1975 the city asked to annex as far as the inside boundary of the RDA, which included Refinery Row but not St. Albert or Sherwood Park. However, the city was told it would have to go through the LAB, and that it should strike yet another boundary commission. Since that time there have been small boundary adjustments, many of which have been initiated by developers.

Mr. Ackroyd said the boundary review was essential to facilitate long range planning, review the adequacy of regional planning systems, maximum land resources, provide diversity of land supply and promote long range planning of water, sewage systems and sanitary waste systems.

The present study will examine a wide range of subjects including utilities, legalities, land use, transportation, local government and economics. The final decision will be a political one, by elected officials. It is expected the final recommendations will be brought down very soon, with the LAB being requested to initiate the approval process on February 15.

MAYOR HARVEY
... not my horizon

MAYOR ERUPTS

Mayor Ronald Harvey had strong words for the delegation, which he read out from some hastily jotted notes. Mr. Harvey said the reading was necessary as his high blood pressure and Irish temper might get the best of him if he spoke 'off the cuff'. He said he "didn't appreciate reading in the Gazette that this had been presented to local school boards before coming to the council." The mayor went on to say that "as far as I'm concerned it's not my horizon if it includes the annexation of St. Albert." The mayor concluded that he did not know why the presentation had been made, unless it was to permit Edmonton to say it has spoken to the surrounding municipalities.

Ald. Thronson agreed with the mayor's sentiments and also asked why the presentation was made. Mr. Ackroyd responded that the Edmonton representatives wished to inform the council of the study, before a newspaper did. Ald. Margaret Smith expressed her appreciation for the group's willingness to make the presentation and asked several questions regarding the mechanics and methods of the study.

Ald. Breadner then asked Mayor Purves if he would hazard a guess as to which option would be chosen in the report and if St. Albert would be included. Mr. Purves said he was still "in the dark" about the report and had no idea yet what would be recommended.

"I'm not a betting man," remarked Mr. Breadner "but I'll bet Mr. Purves that we're in, not out."

Alderman Liesbeth Bakker did a little "fishing", trying to determine the Edmonton's ambitions by discovering in what centres the group had made their presentation and what alternate boundaries were being considered. She also questioned the role of Dr. Axworthy, who was the framer of Winnipeg's unicity plan. The responses, however, revealed little.

In concluding the presentation, the Edmonton group extended an apology to Mayor Harvey for the order of presentation, saying that the school boards had come first only because of scheduling demands.

The mayor accepted the apology, stating that his blood pressure had lowered and his anger had abated.

own council as an autonomous body responsible for departments such as St. Albert's Community Services. "I have to allay any suspicions you have that we are hellbent to gobble up everything in sight," he said.

Trustee Scott Friese asked if Edmonton was encouraging input at this stage. Ackroyd replied that he felt concerns should be expressed now, "put yourselves in the position to criticize, support and actively take part. We will give you information from time to time."

POSSIBLE BOUNDARY?

In 1973 the City of Edmonton made a submission to the provincial cabinet - "Future of This City" - which recommended this boundary. Chances are that at least this much land will be included in Edmonton's bid for annexation.

Board hears presentation

not. But the provincial government, said Mr. Ackroyd, was not interested in becoming embroiled in a political fight with Edmonton and her close neighbours. Edmonton then began to oppose all piecemeal annexations while this major proposal is being prepared for the LAB. Pressure, mainly from developers on Edmonton's periphery, will be put on the government to respond to the LAB recommendations as quickly as possible. Mr. Ackroyd said it was the LAB's custom to make recommendations effective January 1st which led him to believe January 1980 but perhaps more realistically 1981. He said the people involved in the Horizon 21 project were "pushing like heck" ... We are going to do everything we can (to make the proposal successful).

Trustee Gary Hodgins asked Mr. Ackroyd whether the fact Edmonton was making public its posture (expansion of its borders) would effect the findings of consultants hired by the city as was evident in previous studies commissioned by our southern neighbour. Mr. Hodgins was referring to the practice of giving the answer you know is wanted whether you believe it correct or not.

Mr. Ackroyd replied that Edmonton was also looking at a no growth option. He also said that the political decision would carry the most weight but that he was "satisfied a very professional job is being done" (implying that the consultants would not produce findings solely to please Edmonton).

EDMONTON'S GOAL HINTED AT

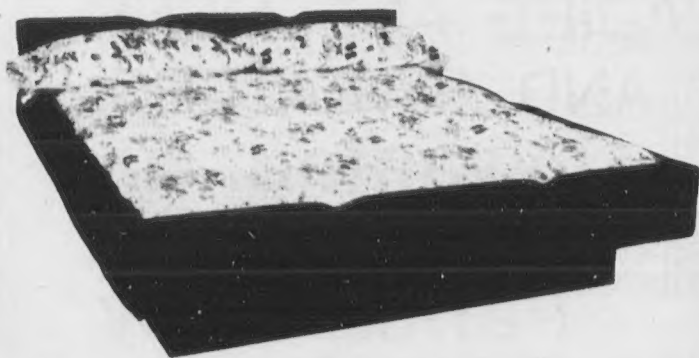

Ackroyd said the study was looking at the example of the greater Vancouver area where one council is responsible for the essential services that effect all the 16 communities involved and each community retains its

St. Albert residents who had an interviewer come to their homes during December with a long list of questions will be relieved to know the answers will form part of the Horizon 21 study. The questions were put together by the University of Winnipeg as part of the Local Government section of the study. The University of Winnipeg study is headed by Dr. L. Axworthy, one of the chief authors of the Winnipeg Unicity Plan.

Want to reduce those energy bills?

Even in Alberta, energy bills are a matter of concern to homeowners, businessmen, landlords and institutional administrators. Reducing those bills through the conservation of energy means increased profits, in either homes or businesses.

On January 22-23, a seminar will be held to teach "Energy Conservation Basics in Small Buildings." The seminar will demonstrate how to obtain major savings in heating and electric bills for small stores, offices, duplexes, walk-up apartments and single family homes. The course will be of particular interest to managers of small to medium sized rental properties. Cost-benefit ratios will illustrate the economics of energy conservation. Class time will be reserved on the second evening for discussion and solution of student's conservation proposals. The course runs on the above dates from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The basic mechanisms of heat transfer will be explored and applied to passive solar heating of residential homes. Included in the presentation are such passive heating systems as direct gain, trombe wall, water wall and attached greenhouse.

The course runs on the aforementioned dates from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Both courses will be staged at Corbett Hall, University of Alberta. To register, contact the Faculty of Extension, University of Alberta, Corbett Hall, Edmonton T6G 2G4.

EDITOR - VICKY KNIGHT

Cause Celebre opens tonight

The Citadel Theatre has announced the North American premiere of Terence Rattigan's Cause Celebre. Directed by Peter Coe, Cause Celebre will open on the Shochor Stage, January 17, and play until February 11.

Terence Rattigan has written over 20 plays, the most celebrated of which, The Winslow Boy, received the Ellen Terry Award for the best play produced on the London stage during 1946, and the New York Critics Award for the best foreign play produced in New York in 1947. His play The Browning Version also received the Ellen Terry Award.

Cause Celebre was inspired by a sensational real-life murder case which rocked Britain in 1935. Described by the London Observer as "a triumph for the traditional West End play" it was Rattigan's final play before his death last year.

Glynis Johns returns to the Citadel to play Alma Rattenbury, the role which won her the 1978 Variety Award for best actress in the London production of Cause Celebre.

Also starring with Miss Johns is well known Canadian actor Barry Morse, who plays the role of O'Connor (the defense lawyer). Mr. Morse is estimated to have played several thousand roles in theatre, film, television and radio - a long and illustrious career, including a spell as artistic director of the Shaw Festival. He recently co-starred with Peter O'Toole and David Hemmings in the film Power Play, H. G. Wells' The Shape of Things to Come, with Jack Palance, and The Changeling with George C. Scott. This is Mr. Morse's first appearance at the Citadel.

Brendan Barry (as Croom-Johnson, the prosecutor) has appeared previously in the Citadel's productions of Mooby Dick - Rehearsed and Richard III. During three seasons at Stratford-Upon-Avon, Mr. Barry worked with such renowned directors as John Gielgud, Tyrone Guthrie, Peter Brook and Michael Benthall. Most recent television appearances include Cardinal Wolsey in The Kings Glaziers for the BBC and Lord Northcote in "Disraeli" for ITV.

David Ferry plays the role of George Wood. Originally from St. John's, Newfoundland, David has previously appeared in Edmonton in the national tour of James Reaney's The Donnelly Trilogy. Film appearances include a co-starring role with Peter Fonda in "Highballin'."

Barbara Chilcott returns to the Citadel after her acc-claimed performance in Harold and Maude, to play the role of Edith Davenport. Miss Chilcott's career includes appearances on Broadway, London's West End, and at Stratford, Ontario.

Paul Craig, as Montague and Micki Maunsell as Stella Morrison have both appeared previously in the Citadel's productions as Harold and Maude and Richard III.

Other performances include Derek Beland as the Judge, Jack Wilson as Francis Rattenbury, Ted Dykstra as Tony Davenport, Sydney Sturgess as the Wardress, Christopher Gaze as the Clerk of the Court and William Fisher as Sergeant Bagwell.

Classic romance has large cast

Attend the Walderdale Theatre, just one night's performance and be warmed for a whole week by this torrid, medieval love story of Peter Abelard, a French philosopher, and Heloise, his 17-year old student.

A large cast of 22 actors is directed by Eric Candy and the set, costumes and lighting have been designed by John Madill.

"Abelard and Heloise" is written by Ronald Millar and runs January 23 - February 3 with performances nightly at 8:30 p.m. There is also a matinee Sunday, January 28 at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are $3 and available at the Bay downtown box office, phone 424-0121.

The Skeptic's Tank

By Vicky Knight

This week marks my maiden effort as a columnist. In future, this space will not be the sole preserve of things theatrical. Instead, I plan to turn my myopic eye elsewhere, gazing fearlessly into the mysteries of the local arts scene, magazines, books, TV, movies and of course the theatre. Of course, your comments would be appreciated. Floral compliments will be graciously accepted; letterbombs will be returned with a polite note.

And now for my first devastating salvo.

The magazine business (which makes roulette look like a solid investment) is mushrooming. The days when Look, Life, Time, Liberty, Maclean's and the Saturday Evening Post ruled the racks are over and a befuddling selection now paralyzes the buyer. General publications have been joined by those promoting special interests - everything from interior decorating to beer can collecting. With my usual incisiveness, I took 35 minutes to settle on a slick little publication with the ambiguous title of "Your Place."

"Your Place" generally reflects the fact that more money than imagination went into its making. Four colour pies gleam richly from slick glossy pages, indicating to the reader why he or she must pay $1.25 for the dubious pleasure of reading it. It is difficult to discern to whom "Your Place" is directed, but I think it is aimed at a somewhat mythical audience of young urban swingers. Judging by the material, "Your Place" readers are blessed with tiny minds, tacky taste and unlimited funds. The cover depicts a swingin' seventies couple all tricked out in disco duds, suavely sipping at white wine (but of course, it's de rigeur).

The contents continue on the same plane. Like many of the magazines I looked at, "Your Place" carries no editorial comment. Although this is the heart of any publication, young swingers apparently don't want to bother with "heavy" stuff. (Please don't check OUR editorial page this week). As a result, the Editors devote their space to some sleazy hype for this issue's contents. The contents definitely need something but hype ain't it.

Because the title filled me with lurid fascination I turned to a little travelogue headed "Disco Acapulco." (Panchito Villa must be doing posthumous somersaults). The piece strikes the only note of humour in the magazine, but the laughs are unintentional. It's a treatise on trendy travel, a vacation for the vacuous. Anyone following the hyperactive itinerary proposed would return home with a thriving cirrhosis, bunions and a terminal case of disco dementia. All night 'boogying' is to be followed by interminable sun 'n fun, shopping and endless rounds of pina colodas. I guess these swell guys 'n chicks need nothing as banal as sleep.

Thoroughly exhausted by this, I turned to the next offering, and found myself bogged down in a quagmire of celebrity gossip. Why is it, that with the possible exceptions of Fortune Magazine and the Plumbers Annual, all magazines feel honour-bound to pay tribute to Hollywood? (Presumably, young swingers don't wish to be burdened with anything more demanding than clever quips from Charlie's Angels and the like).

However, intellectual heavyweights needn't feel ignored. For you there is a man vs. woman forum on that burning issue of our time - "The Great Sex Appeal Debate." The less said about this blithering nonsense the better. A poetry corner offers a paean - to the acquisitive ethic entitled "New House." For a real brain strain, try the quiz which concerns arguing and is a must for anyone wanting some psycho babble to try out at the next cocktail party.

As proof of its cool, YP presents us with the results of their Pot Poll, all about who smokes up and why. For anyone with a pressing need to know what percentages of respondents took up during group sex, this is for you. Anyone wanting solid, scientifically based data on marijuana consumption should look elsewhere.

Lest I sound like a complete snark, I will admit that a few of the features aren't bad - three to be precise. An article on reducing noise in apartments has some sound (excuse me) advice, as did a piece on choosing a doctor. (YP's fans would have genuine need of one!). The best article in the whole mess is a lovely piece on vegetables that looks like it found itself in the wrong magazine. This is part 5 in an ongoing series on veggies and gives some interesting facts on kale, rutabaga and brussel sprouts. The graphics are gorgeous.

An article on credit has dubious motivations while a piece on gypsy truckers seems misplaced here.

As you might have guessed, I was something less than enthralled by "Your Place." To be fair, my jaundiced attitude might be due to my advanced age. At 30, I am now too decrepit to be considered a young swinger by the youth freaks. The lifestyles described within are directed at those with a song in their hearts and methamphetamine in their blood. Oh well, why should I worry. Pass the geriatric vitamins please!

A fight for freedom

A lasting look at savage Britain

By Robert Coles

An intricate tale of woe weaves itself from the history of ancient Britain under the pen of Pauline Gedge. Her second book, The Eagle and The Raven, involved 18 months of in-depth research and an additional six months to write. It's 694 blood stained pages follow the life of Caradoc, a barbarian chief of chiefs, from 32 A.D. to 59 A.D.

Zealand, but presently resides near Hanna, Alberta with her husband and two sons. She has always been fond of history and attributes it to a long line of good history teachers. In fact her deep interest in Egypt was kindled at the age of 11 and aided her in writing her first major work Child Of The Morning, which is the story of Hatsheput, Egypt's only female pharaoh.

A Gazette Book Review

Pauline's novel is intriguing, and unfolds a remarkable essay on freedom, as brutal, blood lusty barbarians clash with the classical phalanxes of Roman power and domination. Her knowledge of the era about which she writes brings the novel to life which eases the challenge of the length.

I cannot realistically accept the humiliation Venutius withstood from the treacherous Aricia. Other than that the book is very believable, especially the passage pertaining to the Master Druid. The philosophy of this section is brilliantly calculated and related by Mrs. Gedge.

Author Rising

Child Of The Morning, Pauline's first novel, is a pleasant read, and has received many plaudits from other critics. I find The Eagle And The Raven much more professional and it leaves me eager to buy number 3. When Mrs. Gedge was at the Bookshelf before Christmas, she informed me that her next book will be a fantasy, something she has never tried before.

Pauline was born in New

Pauline Gedge spent a Saturday afternoon at the Bookshelf not too long ago to promote her latest book The Eagle And The Raven, and her first novel Child Of The Morning. Pauline presently lives near Hanna where she is hard at work on her third book. She has a very promising future as a writer and is gaining wide acclaim for her present works.

Hideout Column

By Albert Zylstra

Hi, it's us again; here to fill your life with as little drudgery as humanly possible. We have a few interesting little mementos to throw at you since you heard from us last week.

It has been a very enjoyable week for most of us. In fact last Friday we had a record breaking dance. The following records were broken: Queen - bicycle race ... etc., etc.

Actually it was most enjoyable for all including the teen-aiders and the police when they drove up on our sidewalk and proceeded to drive around the building.

A very special thanks to Bobby and her husband for the gallant attempt with the fog machine. Better luck next time, Bobby.

W.D. Cuts making it official

January 29 William D. Cuts School will host members of the community in a celebration of its official opening. The school, which opened its doors to students in the fall, takes its name from the late Dr. Cuts, a long time member of the St. Albert Protestant Separate School Board.

Alberta Education Minister Julian Koziak, will be the guest speaker and the program is planned so as to be of interest to both parents and students in the community.

A short formal program in the gymnasium will be followed by a variety of displays and activities throughout the school. Coffee will be served.

And speaking of next time, there is another dance February 23 at the Hideout. The cost, time and place are as usual, the same.

Now for something completely different. Elections are being held for the first time. All positions are open except treasurer, (and with the mess the books are usually in be thankful).

Wednesday night at 9 p.m. there is a very special program on Cable 5 about all the present youth organizations in St. Albert. Be sure and watch it one and all. (Can you think of a better way to kill a Wednesday night?).

Y.D.P. is holding another coffee house Sunday, January 21 from 1 - 4 p.m. Come on out. It should be fun.

Saturday, January 20, there will be a Teen Centre booth in Grandin Mall. Information on the Centre's history, present programs, teen-aiders, and election news will all be presented on that day.

[P.S.]

A sum of money was found at the dance. A person approached Mrs. Beale with a question of lost money. It has been found. Please phone 459-3413, (we know what you look like, so all phones will be quickly hung up on!).

LONG WAY TO GO

These youngsters at the Wild Rose School kindergarten add the finishing touches to their winter landscape mural. The 13 students of Miss Semaka's class should finish the mural before spring thaw.

Enterprise Column

Tonight the second "Operation Enterprise" television show will be shown. Some of the contents: East Side Teens coming events, information on Lois Shaw's Leadership Program, St. Albert Teen Centre election news, and the first episode of the Enterprise Soap Opera - "Suds" with apologies to Mark Sutherland).

The show will be on Wednesday at 9 o'clock on Cable Five. Watch it.

Speaking of the Soap Opera; they're meeting at 4 p.m., Thursday, January 18 at the Teen Centre. They can use lots of help - if you're interested in drama come on down!

Interested in a ski trip to Jasper February 8 - 11 (Teachers' Conference), Enterprise Sports Committee is planning a low cost trip and there are still a few spaces left. Come to our meeting Thursday, January 18 at 7 p.m. at the Teen Centre.

Enterprise's Social Committee is meeting Friday, January 19 at Paul Kane School. If you have any ideas relating to what kinds of social activities should be happening for Teens in St.

Albert, drop in and let them know.

Enterprise is entering a powerhouse team in the East Side Teens floor hockey tournament this weekend. Their first game is Friday night at nine, with the finals Saturday morning and afternoon. First prize is $60., second prize $30. Still a few spots on the team, but you'd better hurry. If you're interested (girls too) call Shawn at 458-8848 (Teen Centre) or 459-6601, ext. 77 (Community Services).

And last but not least, there will be a COFFEE HOUSE, Sunday, Jan. 28 at the Teen Centre from 1 - 5 p.m. Admission is just 50¢, live music provided by the Strathcona Cultural Association. This one promises to be the best yet, so if you're looking for an excellent way to spend a Sunday afternoon this is it!

If you want further information on any of the above contact Shawn or Lynn at the Teen Centre (458-8845), we are usually around at lunch hours, or call Community Services 459-6601 ext. 77.

Hey Everyone!

Did you know there is a coffee house in St. Albert?

Where - Grandin Clubhouse

Library picks of the week

By Joyce Genereux
War and Remembrance by Herman Wouk. War and Remembrance is a historical romance. The subject is World War II, the viewpoint American. The beginning of the end of War lies in Remembrance.

Vivien Leigh by Anne Edwards. Vivien Leigh, one of the most talented, beautiful and tormented actresses who ever captured the public imagination, is at last brought into brilliant focus in this definitive, intimate portrait of her life -- and of the glittering worlds in which she lived.

Dead Reckoning by C. Northcote Parkinson. Parkinson is a master at evoking the romance and drama of naval operations in the age of sail. After taking part in the capture of the Cape of Good Hope from the Dutch, Delancey becomes involved in the protection of the East India Company's China fleet, which the French are seeking to intercept.

Joan Crawford by Bob Thomas. Few Hollywood careers have been more fabulous, more scandalous, more dizzyingly from rags-to-riches and from triumph-to-tragedy, more glaringly limelitt than that of Joan Crawford, born Lucille Fay LeSueur, in 1906.

Dark at Noon by Jill Tattersall. A coach plunges down a rugged ravine in Northern Wales, a beautiful young woman, the sole survivor of the accident, is struck with amnesia. Is she Mary Ramsey, the plain countrywoman? Or Victoria Marten, the recently widowed heiress to the vast Castell Marten estate? You won't be able to put this book down until you reach its dramatic end.

Women's Aglow enjoy meeting

The December meeting of the St. Albert Women's Aglow Fellowship was a welcome pause in the busy Christmas season to give glory to the One who made this joyous season possible - the Lord Jesus. May Wier of Edmonton sang a beautiful rendition of that lovely song The Holy City.

Mildred Hodges gave a timely message on the liberty that comes with faith in Christ. Mildred has served as a missionary with her husband and now resides in Edmonton where they are active in their local church and with leading Bible studies.

All interested ladies are encouraged to attend the next fellowship meeting which will be at the Club Mocombo, Thursday, January 18 at 7:30 p.m. Bernice Koster, a former resident of St. Albert, will be speaking.

For further information and reservations please contact one of the following: Bonnie Stephen, 458-0022; Doris Jobe 458-6552, or Marie Berg 459-6742.

Week of prayer service to be held

The churches of St. Albert are holding another service in conjunction with the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity at the Parish Roman Catholic Church next Sunday night at 8:30 p.m. Many of the clergymen from local churches will be taking part. The program was worked out through the Ministerial Association with Father Dowling doing the arrangements.

Rev. Linsey Vogan from the Edmonton Westminster United Church is the featured speaker. An offering will be taken for aid to a needy world. A coffee hour will follow the service.

All interested people are invited, says Rev. B. L. Heath, chairman of St. Albert Ministerial Association.

St. Albert Air Cadets in Review

No. 533 RC(Air)C Squadron

On January 11, 1979, it was back to regular Thursday parade, to begin a new semester. General organizing and class assignments were on the agenda. Some cadets will carry on in the same classes as first semester, with others taking a completely different subject and those in flying scholarship class, continuing in their respective subjects.

Feedback from the Newsletter sent to all cadets and parents during the Christmas holidays, regarding the upcoming banquet, seems to indicate a very good response of guests, cadets and parents. The Sword of Honour Presentation Banquet, hosted by #533 Squadron sponsors, the St. Albert Lions Club, will be held this Thursday, January 18 at 1830 hrs. at the Club Mocombo. Cadets are to be in uniform and dress is semi-formal. Next week's Gazette will cover this event.

Activities are being planned for the months ahead and cadets will be notified on parades as they come up.

Band, drill and sports resumed this week as well and practices will be harder and more frequent as Zone and Provincial finals come closer. Every member is expected out for every drill and band practice.

Information on joining Air Cadets can be obtained at the Community Hall, Thursday evenings at 1900 hrs.

Voice of V.J.M.

By Cheryl Cariou

Hello once again, hope you have all recuperated from the festive season. As soon as students returned from their holidays, they had to hit the books, because the mid-term exams are coming up on February 21 and 22, 1979.

Earlier in the month of December, we had Hat Day which was an exciting event for all students. The class of 9H won the banner because they had the most original hat and complete class participation. The original hat was worn by Frank Taylor which was an old World War II pilot's hat. Thanks, V.J.M., for your great participation.

Also in December the Students' Council decided to get V.J.M. into the Christmas spirit. They decided to let everyone show off their room by decorating it with lights and tinsel and original home made decorations. One class from both grade eight and nine were chosen for their excellent decorating job. Congratulations to 8B, Mr. O'Donnell's class and 9B, Mr. Anderson's class.

A dance was held on the last day of school before the Christmas holidays. Fun was had by all.

In the sports area, our senior girls volleyball team won the trophy against the Lorne Akins girls. Congratulations girls! Our senior boys volleyball team made it to the semi-finals but were defeated by W.D. Cuts team. Good effort, boys!

Our basketball teams have been chosen for quite some time. Our senior boys team has already won the Sherwood Park tournament on January 6, 1979, and have previously defeated St. Cecilia twice. Our senior girls team played an exhibition game against the S.A.H.S. and were defeated.

Our senior boys are playing an exhibition game against St. Cecilia on Thursday, January 18 at 3 p.m. All spectators are welcome. The girls are playing on Friday, January 19 against St. Pius at St. Pius.

On January 20, 1979 at Paul Kane, the first annual "3 on 3" junior high basketball tournament will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Each junior high will have two boys teams and two girls teams. Trophies will be given to winning teams!

A few weeks ago the Knights of Columbus had a Free Throw championship. V.J.M. had winners from both grade eight and nine. They were Marty Hoffart, Cheryl Cariou, Chris Borgstede and Patti Slezka. These people will go on to the City Championship in Edmonton on January 28, 1979. Congratulations to all. Bye for now.

Movers to stage hayride and bonfire

By Kevin Perrott

On January 26 at 7 p.m. members of the Movers are going out on a hayride and bonfire outing. The group will meet at Belcourt's farm in front of the grain elevators and the cost is $1.50. Last year the club had a great turnout and expects even better results this year. Anyone who went Christmas carolling knows what a good time you can have out of doors. Food will be available (pop, chips, chocolate bars) at regular cost.

Unfortunately some people are not familiar with the Movers so here is a brief explanation of the group's membership and role.

Movers of St. Albert is a tightly knit organization of high school students working voluntarily for the youth of St. Albert. There are five committees in Movers, each with pre-designated jobs to do: social, cultural and recreational, community youth volunteer committee, publicity and spiritual.

The Social Committee is largely responsible for putting on and organizing dances. The Cultural and Recreation committee chooses beneficial events and activities for teens such as skiing, concerts, important events etc. They also provide transportation to and from these activities. C.Y.V. donates one month of members' summer holidays to helping a northern native community. The money made from other events goes to supporting this trip but most of the activities planned by Movers are non-profit. Publicity makes all events known to the teens and helps youth by holding masses after most events and encourages teenagers to take part in their religion.

Movers itself has its roots deep in the St. Albert Catholic Parish Council and was recently led by Father Duchesneau O.M.I., until he left for Paris, France.

The hayride is just one event planned and those planning can plan on having a good time.

East Side Teens

By Mary-Jo

I've taken a little break from writing the column for East Side, but now I'm back and there's lots of things to tell you about. We have things going for the rest of January and the beginning of February.

This weekend, January 19 and January 20 there will be another Floor Hockey tournament. This time there are eight teams competing for first place. The time on Friday night 7 - 11 and on Saturday from 1 - 5 p.m. If you want to come out and cheer on a team we'll be at Sir George Simpson school.

The following Friday, January 26, we hope to have a dance at the Purple Church. We'll know for sure this week so check the Gazette next week.

Now that I'm through with January I can go on to February. The first weekend in February, East Side is going to raid Jasper. If anyone remembers the trip we took last year, you know that we're in for a good time this year.

If anyone is interested in joining East Side, come out to the meetings on Monday night, at 7:30, at V.J. Maloney, or if you have any questions you can contact Brian Leonard at Community Services, 459-6601, ext. 78.

Don't forget the Floor Hockey Tournament this weekend, hope I'll see you there.

Second period blues for Carma's

Last Thursday evening at the Akinsdale Arena, Carma's St. Albert bantams entertained Spruce Grove 3M in a league tilt and came away with the short end of a 6-4 decision.

Although the game had its bright moments and some dreary intervals, there was plenty of entertainment due to the closeness of the score, if not to the brilliance of the play. St. Albert came out early in the game skating rings around the Grove club, collecting two goals in the process, the first by John Findlay who scooped in a John Neil rebound. Mike Tessier also assisted. Erin Oor scored the second at the five minute mark on a powerplay, with Mike Wells and Billy McNamara assisting. From then on the first period was fairly even although neither team managed to score.

With their two-goal lead, Carma's came out in the second period completely flat, skating poorly and passing terribly. For the first half of the frame, Spruce Grove dominated play but failed to collect any goals. Finally, at about mid-point, a Grove winger neatly wove between the Carma defense and cleanly potted their first goal. About four minutes later, the visitors tied the game on a breakaway which concluded with the puck in the St. Albert net.

Spruce Grove came out in the third period determined to take advantage of the slack performance of the host team. This they did early in the period, with a goal in less than a minute on a slapshot right from a corner faceoff. Almost exactly a minute later, the Grove went two goals ahead on a dumpy shot which found its way in to the corner of the net.

Down now by two, St. Albert briefly came to life, exhibiting some of the style of play shown in the first period. With three minutes gone in the period, Tessier finished off a pretty passing play from Findlay and Rod Sopiwynek, to narrow the gap. Three minutes later, on a similar play, Findlay collected his second goal, from Zach Wheatley and Kevin Laliberte.

With the score now tied, play became quite close and a bit chippy. Neither team really dominated the balance of the game and the winning goal came from a screened point shot, which deflected off no less than three Carma's players into their net. The final goal came with 45 seconds left into an empty St. Albert goal.

Friday night, Carma's journeyed to Spruce Grove for another league match but fared no better in an 8-3 loss. Although they held off a determined Grove offense in the first period, allowing but one goal while being outshot 14 to 4, Carma's never were in the game.

In the second period, the flood gates opened and Spruce Grove scored five times, although St. Albert counted first on a play where Oor's perseverance paid off.

The third period was Carma's best, as both teams counted twice. St. Albert scored after about seven minutes after a good second effort by Tony Rouault. At the mid-point, on a power-play, Carma's notched their final goal when Mike Wells converted a John Holden pass.

The game was quite a rough affair, made more so by the inability of the two-official system to completely keep track of the play. In bantam hockey of this calibre, three officials are a must. Many missed violations by both clubs resulted in snowballing chippiness which detracted from the play.

Traders move into first place with win over Saints

Fort Saskatchewan Traders moved into a first place tie in the Alberta Junior "A" Hockey League with the Calgary Canucks coming up with a 5-2 win Sunday night in St. Albert over the Saints.

Taber Golden Suns moved ahead of the Saints with a 4-3 overtime win in Calgary against the hometown Canucks.

The loss for the Saints dropped them into fourth spot in the seven-team A.J.H.L. two points behind the Suns.

In other A.J.H.L. action Sunday, Sherwood Park Crusaders dropped their 24th game in a row as they lost 9-6 to Calgary Chinooks.

Saints also found time to win a pair of games coming up with a 2-1 victory Thursday night in Red Deer and then handing the Chinooks a 8-2 loss Saturday night in St. Albert.

Canucks and Traders have identical records of 28 wins and 12 losses, while Taber has 24 wins and 15 defeats in 39 games. St. Albert is two points behind with 23 wins and 13 losses after 36 starts.

Calgary Chinooks are in fifth place with 34 points followed by Red Deer at 20 and the basement dwelling Crusaders with only 12 points.

The Saints win in Red Deer Thursday night was highlighted with some excellent goaltending by both Pierre Lamoureux in the Saints goal and young Trevor Gaalaas in the Rustlers net.

Timba Siyo scored the winning goal for the Saints in the third period while Brian Shaw tallied in the first period. Doug Volk replied for the Rustlers.

TROY MURRAY

Saturday night in St. Albert rookie Troy Murray was the only Saint to score a pair of goals in St. Albert's 8-2 win. Jeff Marshall, Dave Inch, Ken Solheim, Guy Bohmer, Perry Zaparniuk and Steve McKenzie scored the others. Ray Cote and Greg Stammier replied for the Chinooks.

Mike Ferris fired home three goals in the Traders 5-2 win Sunday night in St. Albert with Tom McGillivray and Marty Achtmichuk adding singles.

Brian Shaw and Dave Inch were the only Saints to solve the outstanding goaltending of Clint Malarchuk in the Traders net.

Brian Shaw also had a strong game in the Saints net with some fine saves to keep the score as respectable as it was. Achtmichuk scored into the empty net late in the final period.

Saints will be at home tonight with a game against the Sherwood Park Crusaders, who will be trying to break their losing streak of 24 games in a row.

On the weekend the Saints will be in southern Alberta with games in Calgary Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon in Taber.

Saints will be at home on the 24th and 26th with Fort Saskatchewan and Taber.

Marty O'Kell On Sports

Only three more days to the Over-the-line Snowball Tournament being put on by the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association.

I can't wait...but then, we'll probably lose every game we play. The "we" is the Gazette Snowball team, consisting of Al Popil, Bob Coles, Duff Jamison and myself. The reason I think we'll get beat is that some of the opposition I'm sure are fastball players, and they'll know, no doubt, how to hit those softballs real far. Duff has just hinted to me that we're going to blow everyone out of the park...but I don't think so. I'm not as confident as he. Actually I'm more realistic. I think.

The cold weather has forced us from having a practice, but we've scheduled one for tomorrow. Pray it isn't too cold, please.

The whole weekend sounds like a fun deal. Co-sponsors Carling O'Keefe (need I say more) will be providing some goodies at the hospitality night on Friday. That's when the rules of the game will be explained to us. It will also be a chance for us and everyone to meet the opposition. Saturday night after the tournament there will be a cold buffet and disco dance.

There's one thing that Danny Woytiuk, of the Fastball Association pointed out to me. This affair will not only be fun for those participating, but many people in St. Albert will benefit from the tournament. The GSAMFA are planning on building the "Meadowview Diamonds." Meadowview will consist of two diamonds capable of supplying a good facility to organizations playing either the slow pitch or fast pitch style of softball. It will be fenced, and bleachers will be erected. Down the road (now the street, but a few years away) the GSAMFA wants to have it lit for night contests.

Now this is all going to cost a few bucks. And bucks don't grow on trees. That's where the Snowball tourney is going to help. Some money will be made at the tournament (it is, in a way, a fund raising event) to go toward the construction of the Meadowview Diamonds.

"If we want to host the Alberta Games, we should put our best foot forward" is what Danny said...and I have to agree with him.

As I mentioned in a previous column about facilities in this city, the baseball diamonds stink.

There will be over 3,000 athletes coming to compete in the Games, and anywhere from two to four or five thousand more people coming with them. That's a lot of people coming to our city. They will be around our sports facilities watching...COMPARING, among other things. All these visitors will judge, to a certain extent, our city by what they see at the Games. Thus...it's easy to see why our sports facilities should be, at the very worst, DECENT.

The GSAMFA sees this, and so do I, and they plan on doing something about it.

Hats off to the Greater St. Albert Men's Fastball Association. And good luck in the tournament.

And good luck to our team, believe me, we'll need it. UNFORTUNATELY, the Sturgeon SNOW GOLF tournament is on the same day, and as I am already booked up, I can't make it. The second annual event, to be held at Cardiff Park, will have to wait till next year before I embarrass the Gazette sports tradition with my inept attempts at SNOW GOLF. Anyways...good luck to the snow golf people.

I happened to catch half of a game of the Knights of Columbus Mini Basketball program, and this program to me seems like a great way for boys and girls to have some good, clean fun. They play every Saturday in four of the local gyms, with winning a factor that is not of any importance. More on this in the near future.

The Pittsburgh Steelers by seven in the Super Bowl, according to the little mouse that lives near my desk.

JUST A LITTLE DIPSY-DOODLING

The unidentified St. Albert Saint (we can't tell if he's number 8 or 18) tries to make the puck skate its own circles around his leg, or so it seems. The Saints dominated the visiting Calgary Chinooks in this contest 8-2 on Saturday at the Akinsdale arena.

Ron Hodgson Pontiacs keep pace in first place race

With only six weeks remaining in the Hwy. 14 Juvenile A schedule, the battle between the St. Albert Pontiacs and the Sherwood Park Raiders for first place continues like the ageless Gordie Howe.

A week ago tonight, the Pontiacs visited Enoch and had little trouble polishing off the Icemen to the tune of 10-2. The following night, the scene of action switched to the Perron arena with the Ron Hodgson boys battling Sherwood Park to a 5-5 stalemate in the feature game of the week. On Monday night, St. Albert entertained the lowly Ardrossan Lions and skated away with an 8-3 victory in a lack-lustre affair.

The Pontiacs host Enoch Friday night at the Akinsdale arena, with game time at 7 p.m. The Icemen held the locals to a tie in their last trip here, so it should be well worth the price of admission. St. Albert travels to Ardrossan on Sunday, and the Lions can be tough in their "own den," having handed the Pontiacs a loss earlier in the season.

Monday night brings the Leduc Stingers to town with the visitors being a team that can come out flying on any given night. The Stingers are the only club to hang defeats on both the Park and St. Albert this season, so 7:30 in the Perron arena Monday night will be the place to be.

PONTIACS WERE THE CHIEFS IN ENOCH

Cliff Greening led the scoring attack with five points and a pair of goals in the cleanly played contest, which saw St. Albert pick up seven of 11 minor penalties.

Jeff Harmon started the Pontiacs on the road to victory with a pair of first period goals to go along with Greening's sixth of the season and Kent Middleton's 10th. The Icemen managed only one tally from the stick of Cardinal, thus skating off the ice on the short end of a 4-1 score.

St. Albert struck fast and furious in the middle stanza firing four goals in the first seven minutes to put the game out of reach; Keith Heyburn, Greening, Murray Riddell and Colin Tooth scored in that order. Enoch ended their scoring for the night sneaking one by Scott Gannon in the Pontiac cage in the dying seconds of the period.

Todd Winquist and John Provincial rounded out the scoring in the third as the Ron Hodgson crew nursed their lead till the final buzzer sounded.

SHERWOOD PARK STEALS TIE

The visiting Raiders pulled an old one out of their "bag of tricks" pulling their net-minder in the dying seconds in favor of a sixth attacker. Captain B. Tradewell was the hero, making no mistake at the 19:23 mark when left uncovered at the edge of the Pontiac crease. Rob Tooth broke out of his scoring slump with a hat trick, doing most of the damage for St. Albert.

Sherwood Park blinked the red light twice in the opening period to open up a 2-0 lead, as the locals had trouble setting up good scoring chances and hitting the net when they did.

ROB TOOTH ends scoring drought

Colin Parayko set Tooth up with a perfect pass at 5:47 of the sandwich session, and Tooth tied things up seven minutes later with assists from Parayko and Provincial. Although the Pontiacs were getting back in the game on the scoreboard, they were losing out in the "bench strength" category. Greening got an early shower for fighting, picking up a hand injury for good measure, and Winquist and Ken Young were forced to retire with knee and hip injuries respectively.

Tooth completed his three goal performance at 2:10 of the third period converting passes from Colin Tooth and Middleton. Parayko stretched the St. Albert lead to 4-2 at 3:07 on a deflection from a point drive by Bob Crawford.

The Raiders got one back three minutes later only to have Heyburn erase it at 8:42, combining with line-mates Parayko and Harmon. Sherwood Park was not ready to concede however, as they kept "plugging away," which is characteristic of most teams in first place.

D. Reid narrowed the gap to 5-4 at 14:09 when a soft shot following a face-off scramble caught the corner of the Pontiac net behind a surprised Brent Galbraith. The Raiders came close a couple of times before the last minute drama earned them a split in points.

LIONS EASILY TAMED

Ardrossan enjoyed a 2-1 first period lead, as Harmon was the only Pontiac able to dent the twine in the Lions cage. Murray Riddell knotted the count early in the second with Brad Hancock and Heyburn adding goals to put St. Albert up 4-2 after 40 minutes.

The Lions made things interesting with an early third period goal, but John Provincial's ninth of the season, a pair by Colin Parayko and Middleton's 11th of the year put the game on ice.

St. Albert picked up nine of 14 penalties in the game, which was a bit scrappy and highlighted by only a few brief periods of good hockey.

PONTIAC PASSES - The tie with the Park on home ice could mean St. Albert will have to come up big in at least two of three remaining games with Sherwood to end up on top. Both clubs will have to keep their "door steps clean" against the

this weekend

"Birdie, par and bogie" may seem to be odd words for this time of the year, but they will be commonplace on Saturday as the second annual Sturgeon Snow Golf tournament will be held at Cardiff Park, just south of Morinville.

This year's tournament is shaping up to be even more exciting than Snow Golf '78. To date, registrations and sponsorships have exceeded last year's.

After the snow settled at last year's event, Morinville's Carl Royan had come out on top of the field, winning the tournament trophy with a low score of 42 strokes for nine holes. Guy St. Germain, representing Morinville's Mayor Stapleton, took home the Reeves Challenge Cup. This trophy was donated by M.D. of Sturgeon Reeve Bill Flynn, and is competed for by the reeve and mayors of towns and villages in the M.D. of Sturgeon.

Carl Royan's efforts won him a trip to the World Championship Snow Golf tournament in Prince George B.C., where he finished eighth out of 500 entries.

The big winner from the tournament was the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund. Twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) was raised by the tournament for this fund.

other teams to set the stage for race to the wire. Pontiac management were happy to "ink" Murray Riddell to a contract last week. Murray is always dangerous playing forward, but chances are coaches Harmon and Sage will use his many years of experience on the blueline to good advantage in the home stretch. Todd Winquist's knee injury turned out more serious than anticipated with cartilage damage. Surgery will be necessary, and that will sideline the flashy centremen till around playoff time. The Pontiacs were close to being in first place on Monday night as Leduc had the Park down 6-5 only to "blow it," allowing the Raiders two quick ones in the last two minutes.

Snowball...

it's a laugh

The place to be this Saturday is at the Snowball Tournament near the LaCombe Park Clubhouse, behind the Bertha Kennedy School.

Anytime from 9 a.m. till the final game about 4 p.m. you can drop by for a hot cup of coffee and watch the fulfilled, exciting action of snowball.

You can meet your friends there, begin talking about this summer's fastball season, and you're bound to get a few laughs as you watch many of St. Albert's fastball players grovel in the snow after that round fastball.

If you're there for the final game you'll be able to see who St. Albert's representative in the Canadian Snowball Championships will be.

Or if you're looking for a little fun and adventure you can still enter a four person team in the event. The rules are simple. Using a conventional fastball bat and ball you attempt to hit the ball over a line 20 metres from home plate. If the opposition doesn't catch it, you advance to the first base. Dress warmly and bring a glove.

Lennie Grew at 458-3483 or Gene Lytwin at 459-7074 can accept your entry. Give them a call.

Blue eyed officials frustrate Carma's

St. Albert Carma's bantams were soundly outplayed by Sherwood Park last Sunday evening at the Park in a scheduled league event.

The final analysis of the 8-2 drubbing had to recognize that Carma's just didn't play well against a team which repeatedly took them off the puck, outthrusted them in every department, and deserved the two points for the win.

However, the St. Albert club also had a legitimate beef about the officiating. The referee seemed to be wearing his blue contacts and his enthusiasm for the St. Albert colours resulted in a real difficulty for the fans to distinguish between the Carma's bench and the penalty box. When it came to St. Albert, however, the referee didn't play favorites. All but one skater and one goalie were issued penalties. Even mild-mannered coach Lionel Rouault was favoured with attention, and although he wasn't allowed into the penalty box, had to serve his time watching from the sidelines.

The Park scored their first two in the first half of the opening frame, one from a goalmouth scramble, the other on a deflection. St. Albert's John Findlay put his team on the scoresheet, converting a rebound from the backboards. Mike Wells and Rod Sopiwyk assisted.

Twenty seconds later in the second period, the Park connected with a hard shot from outside the blueline which just caught the post and deflected in. A minute later, another hard blueline shot put the Park up 4-1, and St. Albert changed goal-tenders.

Carma's luck changed briefly at this point, as Erin Oor clicked on a terrific individual effort. However, Sherwood Park quickly regained control, potting three more goals before the period ended.

The final frame was played almost in its entirety with Carma's shorthanded. The host club, however, seemed to have tired of outthrusting their visitors and managed to threaten rarely, scoring just once more, to end the game at 8-2.

Scorpions draw with Sailcats

Calahoo Scorpions and Namao Sailcats hooked up in a very exciting Sturgeon Valley Senior Hockey League game Sunday afternoon in Calahoo with the hometown Scorpions scoring two late third period goals to gain a 7-7 tie.

TERRY BAUMAN

Terry Bauman and Geoff Holden scored early in the opening period to give Calahoo a 2-0 lead, but Namao came back with goals from Dave Hegadorn and Les Crozier to tie it.

Sailcats went ahead 4-2 on goals by Billy Morris and Don Williams midway through the second only to see Scorpions score three in a row as Ron Gosse, Bouman and Alvin Burke blinked the red light to give the Scorpions a 5-4 lead.

Morris scored his second of the night late in the period to tie the score 5-5 going into the final 20 minutes of action.

Namao appeared to have the game under control as Miles Wilson and Morris's third of the game put the Sailcats ahead 7-5 with only six minutes gone in the period.

JAY McGEOUGH

Bauman popped in his hat trick marker at 13:28 and the old veteran Jay McGeough tied the score at 10:09 to put the Scorpions back in the game.

The final 10 minutes saw some excellent goaltending by both Wally Weneek in the Calahoo goal and Larry Maron in the Sailcats goal as both made many fine saves that should have resulted in goals.

Calahoo will be in Red-water this Friday and Sunday afternoon will travel to Legal

Angels on losing streak

The St. Albert CKST Angels midget B club lost its second and third games in a row last week, both by close scores. Last Thursday on Calahoo ice, the visiting Sherwood Park team doubled the Angels 4-2, and one night later, the Angels took a 4-3 loss at the hands of Westlock in Westlock.

In Thursday's game, both clubs battled to a scoreless draw after one period, with the frame highlighted by good end-to-end hockey and outstanding goaltending by both netminders. Chris Donnelly was between the pipes for the Angels, while Patter handled the net chores for Sherwood Park.

In the second, Mike Murphy passed forward to Dave MacDougall, who went in all alone to score. Midway in the period, Mike Cockrall went down one side and let go with a hard wrist shot that found itself high in the corner of the net, giving the Angels a 2-0 lead.

The final stanza was all Sherwood Park, as they took the lead and eventually victory with goals from McReynolds, Hunter, Suppes and Wagner.

Marlowe Klem took to the nets for the Angels in their close loss to Westlock Friday, and played a very good game in the losing cause.

St. Albert's Jamie Sander slammed in a rebound from Dennis O'Neill at the 9:16 mark to open the scoring. Three minutes later Westlock hit the scoreboard on a goal from Huot.

With less than a minute played in the second, Westlock made it 2-1, but CKST got that back late in the frame on a goal by Murphy. Mike stole the puck from a Westlock player and scored on an open side.

Westlock's Kolasa hit on a powerplay effort early in the third period, but the Angels continued to make it a see-saw battle, as Trent Parayko tipped in a Doug McCarthy shot. Greg Collins also picked up an assist.

Kolasa knocked in goal number two of the night on another powerplay to give Westlock its 4-3 win.

Parayko, Cockrall, O'Neill and Rick Oleson are new members to the Angels, and showed in the game that they were not out of place at all.

Angel defenceman Blain Malanchuk, who has been out with a bad knee, is being cheered on to a speedy recovery by friends and fans, and would like to see him back in the line up as soon as possible.

Vanier/Salisbury

take hoop firsts

The annual Paul Kane-St. Albert High basketball tournament on the weekend was another success, with 16 teams competing for top honours.

On the girls side, Georges P. Vanier of Morinville took the "A" honours, defeating Salisbury 39-26.

It was a good, tight contest that saw Salisbury take control in the first half, but could only manage to maintain a lead of four to six points.

Vanier drew even after a few minutes into the second half, and they took control, building a lead of about 10 points that lasted for the rest of the game.

Salisbury had some tough luck on many shots in the second half, and could have kept the game very even if Lady Luck had been a little more considerate. Morinville used their screens well, and were able to move the ball effectively as a result.

In the Consolation final, St. Albert High kept a lead over Frank Maddock high from Drayton Valley all of the game. Drayton came close to tying it up in the early going of the second half, as the girls from St. Albert High were encountering some small problems.

In the final quarter, the locals started sinking the baskets, and Drayton Valley couldn't catch up. St. Albert won the match 44-30.

Top scorer for St. Albert High was Terry Smith with 15 points, while Roxanne Lemermeyer of Drayton hit on 10 points.

In the final, Vanier's Louise Carignan accounted for 13, while team-mate Charmaine Bulger hooped eight points.

In the boys half, Salisbury came out on top of F.M.H. from Red Deer in the final, with Ardrossan defeating St. Albert High in the Consolation final.

The two St. Albert High teams played their first league game, with the local girls team defeating Stony Plain, while the St. Albert High boys lost a squeaker to Stony Plain 63-61.

YOU CAN'T BOUNCE THE BALL THAT HIGH

A St. Albert High basketball player is in pursuit of an opposing Georges P. Vanier High player in one of the games that took place in the annual Paul Kane-St. Albert High tourney on Saturday. In this game, St. Albert High downed the visiting Morinville team, but lost in the consolation final to Ardrossan. The St. Albert High girls team fared a little better, defeating Drayton Valley 44-30 to take the girls consolation trophy. Both Paul Kane squads were eliminated from the action midway through the tourney.

RMC Sports Centre Saints have rough week

This past week proved very tough for the RMC Pee wee BB team as they lost their only league encounter to Spruce Grove on Saturday night. Earlier in the week they won an exhibition game and on Sunday lost their second exhibition game.

RMC UPSET BANTAM B

On Thursday of last week the RMC Saints travelled to Calahoo to take on the St. Albert Meat Merchants from the Bantam B house league. The Saints emerged on the long end of a 5-2 score. The top marksman for the Saints was Tim Korz who notched a hat trick. Trent Rees and Greg Amyotte chipped in with one goal each to complete the scoring for RMC.

SPRUCE GROVE STOPS THE SAINTS

After an upset victory over Morinville last weekend,

RMC ran into a hot Spruce Grove team Saturday evening and ended up on the short end of a 9-3 score. Spruce Grove jumped off to a quick 3-0 lead in the first period and the St. Albert team found they could not get back in the game. The first period ended 3-0 for the Grove.

TIM KORZ
5 goal week for RMC

In the second period the Saints started an uphill battle when Tim Korz scored on setup from Stan Black and Trent Rees. Spruce Grove came back to make the score 4-1 before Mike Holzer scored on a pass from Don Bremault before the end of the second period.

Trailing 4-2 going into the third period, the RMC Saints only took 35 seconds to pull within one goal. Tim Korz scored on a heads up play when a rebound off the boards got tangled up in the Spruce Grove goaltender's skates. Korz tapped the puck in from the edge of the crease. Assists were given to Stan Black and Wilf Keiser on that goal. Trailing by one goal and looking very strong the Saints ran into some penalty problems and completely collapsed. Spruce Grove scored five goals to come away with a 9-3 victory.

EDMONTON DELWOOD TRIM RMC

On Sunday morning the Saints travelled to Riviere

Qui Barre to take on a pee wee A team from the Edmonton Delwood Community. The Saints came out of that game with a 7-1 loss. They were able to stay with the Delwood team for the early part of the game but seemed to tire in the later going. RMC scored the first goal on a breakaway by Mike Holzer. He broke free at centre and skated in unmolested to beat the Delwood goaltender with a shot to the top corner.

DON BREMAULT
RMC captain and defensive standout

After the first goal "that was all she wrote," as RMC watched Delwood score seven straight goals without a reply. Although the Saints lost two out of three games over the weekend, there were shining lights during the losses. Brent Webber and Gord Trembath both skated hard throughout the weekend and only bad luck kept them off the scoreboard.

Wilf Keiser also played steady hockey on defence and could have come up with a bundle of points if he had been luckier around the goal. RMC Sports Centre next see action in the Sturgeon Pembina Pee wee BB League Sunday, January 21, at the Perron Street Arena at 7 p.m., against Westlock.

Nu-West Canadians triumphant over Strathcona Warriors

Sunday evening saw the Nu-West Canadians entertaining the Strathcona Warriors at the Perron Street Arena. The game ended with an 11-5 win for the Canadians. The Strathcona Warriors are a much improved club and only a six goal scoring spree by the Canadians in the second period made the score so one-sided.

When the teams went to the dressing rooms after the first period the score was 2-2. Scott Rusnak opened the scoring after 35 seconds of play when he fired in a rebound on Todd Carnelley's shot from the blueline. Four minutes later Rusnak picked up a pass from Carnelley after a face-off in front of the Warriors goal. Rusnak scored with a good backhand drive which was screened by a maze of players in front of the goal. From that point on, the Warriors picked up the challenge and for the rest of the period they gave the Canadians a good fight. At the 10 minute mark B. Stauffer scored an unassisted goal when the Canadians were caught with one man back against two. With seven minutes left in the stanza, T. Hopkin scored during a goalmouth scramble in front of the Canadians goal with assists going to Stauffer and T. Clipperton. That ended the scoring in the first period. Both teams were flying all over the ice and displayed lots of good, hard checking, clean hockey.

When the teams returned to the ice for the second period the Canadians were fired up and they scored six goals before the Warriors came back with one. First Carnelley deflected a shot by David Findlay high over the Strathcona goalie. Then Todd Ewen pushed a rebound in after a shot by Rusnak. After that Emanuel Viveiros made a super move at centre ice and stole the puck from a Warriors defender while the Canadians were playing one man short, and went in alone and scored after he had deked the goalie. Thirty seconds later Carnelley came out of the penalty box and Viveiros found him with a good pass. Carnelley was all alone with the goalie and after deaking him, scored in the empty net. With seven minutes left in the stanza Jimmy Hammett directed the puck into the net after Rusnak kicked a Stephen Gosse pass over to him. Two minutes later Viveiros again, when the Canadians were playing one man short, found himself alone at centre ice after Rusnak passed the puck out. Viveiros wasted no time and fired a hard slapshot which was stopped by the goalie, but Viveiros followed up and scored easily on the rebound.

With one minute left in the period the Warriors finally came back with a powerplay goal when the Canadians had two men in the penalty box. Hopkins scored with assist to T. Houacier. The second period ended with an 8-3 score favouring the Canadians.

In the third period the play became more even again with both teams showing good hockey and aggressive plays. Ewen scored his second goal of the evening after Viveiros found him in the slot with a good pass from behind the Warriors goal. Carnelley also earned an assist on this goal. Three minutes later Ewen got his hat trick when he deflected Ole Graversen's shot from the point into the net. Carnelley also earned an assist. The Warriors came back with their fourth goal when A. Cullum scored after a scramble in front of St. Albert's goal. The assist went to Stauffer. At the 10 minute mark of the period Rusnak completed his hat trick when he deflected the puck past the Strathcona goalie during a scramble, with assists going to Carnelley and Graversen. Strathcona ended the scoring with seven minutes left in the game when W. Belfry stole the puck from a St. Albert winger and found B. Gartner in the slot.

A total of 10 minor penalties were handed out. Six to the Canadians and four to the Warriors. Brent Sedgewick in the Canadians goal played an excellent game and came up with many super saves. S. Smith in the Warriors goal was very instrumental in keeping the score down.

Todd Carnelley had a very productive night with seven points: Scott Rusnak with five points; Emanuel Viveiros had four, Todd Ewen, three; Ole Graversen two, Jimmy Hammett, Dave Findlay and Stephen Gosse each with one point.

As usual the Canadians showed very good team spirit and play. If they continue to skate and play as well as they do now they will be very worthy representatives for the west at Quebec City in February where they will be competing in an international hockey tournament.

The team will be leaving February 10, 1979 and returning February 18, 1979.

The Nu-West Canadians next game will be played in Sherwood Park main rink. Game time 6:15 p.m. Sunday, January 21.

A win and loss for Morinville IGA Bantams

Last Friday night the Morinville bantams travelled to Redwater for an exhibition game, downing the hometown squad 7-4.

Redwater hit the scoreboard first midway through the opening period, but a goal from Morinville's Brent Lewis tied it up. Paul Schafers and Dave Kegler received assists. A Kegler goal from Lewis gave IGA the lead going in to the dressing room after one.

Redwater again opened up the period scoring, but the Morinville boys came right back with another goal from the potent Lewis Kegler combo. Lewis picked up his second of the game on the goal. Three minutes later, Lewis and Kegler combined to feed Dwight Van Brabant, who found the net easily. Redwater tallied shortly after, followed by an IGA goal from Murray Johnson. Henry Labonte and John Stankey added assists.

With a 5-3 lead going into the third, Lewis decided that a hat trick would be nice and came through early in the final frame. As usual, Kegler picked up an assist. Redwater replied with a goal before Morinville wrapped up the scoring with a marker from Dan Stankey. Van Brabant and Michael Powornick notched assists. Morinville received eight out of 12 penalties handed out.

On Sunday, the IGA's hosted Spruce Grove in a league game, losing to the visitors by a close 4-3 count. Morinville couldn't hit the scoresheet until midway through the third period on an unassisted effort from Schafers. Other Morinville goals came from Kegler from Johnson, and Marshall Lalonde from Kegler.

Spruce Grove held period leads of 1-0 and 3-0. Morinville and Spruce Grove equally split the 10 minors and two misconducts handed out.

BON ACCORD DERAILMENT INJURES MAN

Four hopper cars of grain, a railway snowplow and two diesel locomotives derailed early last Wednesday morning after a collision with a gravel truck a mile east of Bon Accord. The Northern Alberta Railways train and the truck collided at a level crossing on the Lily Lake Road. Sixty-two year old William Borhen of Edmonton, who was riding in the snowplow at the time of impact, was the only person injured. Mr. Borhen is still in satisfactory condition in hospital, suffering from broken ribs, a fracture in his left leg and lacerations to his right hand. Crews worked around the clock for two days clearing the grain, repairing the track and lifting the train cars back on to the rails. The Lily Lake Road was manned overnight by NAR security personnel, as the road was blocked off to traffic. The 27 car train was on its way to Edmonton from Fort McMurray.

Council puts question of annual meeting to people

At the first meeting of the MD council this new year, council discussed the necessity of holding an annual meeting. Various members of council pointed out that past meetings had been poorly attended. They decided to advertise that no annual meeting will be held this year, unless a substantial number of people appear interested. The annual financial statement will be printed in a local paper. Last year no annual meeting was held due to the confusion arising from the annexation of the Redwater area to the M.D.

LOGO UTILIZED

Council will be putting their new logo to use, ordering decals and pins utilizing that design. In time, all municipal equipment will bear a municipal decal. Councillor Kluthe thought it might be a good idea to also purchase decals to be affixed to the effect, "If this vehicle is not being operated courteously and safely please phone ...", and affix them to municipal equipment. A discussion was launched on this subject, which bore no fruit.

Council agreed to order pins for staff to purchase, and also purchase pins to commemorate years of service in multiples of 5, which will be given to members on staff. It had been hoped to present the pins at the Christmas party held last month, but the information on the pins had not arrived in time.

STURGEON FOUNDATION

Councillor Van de Walle was quite firm in his request for an alternate to attend meetings of the Sturgeon Foundation. He emphasized his concern that St. Albert and the M.D. of Sturgeon would be faced with most of the requisitions coming out of those meetings, therefore necessitating a member of MD Council to attend all meetings. Walter Wolanski will serve as alternate.

CAR ALLOWANCE

Municipal employee, Dave Speer, was awarded a $100 a month car allowance for driving his own car on municipal business, in addition to monies he presently receives for mileage, on a motion by Councillor Crozier. Councillor Van de Walle opposed the motion.

NEW SANDING UNIT

Council passed a motion to purchase a three-ton truck for $13,270, a six yard gravel box for $2,967.35, and a slip-in type sander unit for $4,900 complete and installed.

Council also passed a motion for the Public Works Committee to go ahead and seek tenders for all the new equipment needed for 1979. Once the tenders have been received, council will weed out the equipment needed at acceptable prices.

MIDNIGHT TWILIGHT ASSOCIATION

The president, past president, vice president and secretary of the Midnight Twilight Association again appeared before council to solicit the MD's membership to their organization. Council approved the payment of $772 for membership on a motion by Councillor Crozier. While council backed Councillor Crozier's motion, no one was willing to step forward to become an active member of the Association. Eventually, Councillor Crozier volunteered, remarking Please Turn to Page A28

New transportation initiatives for rural Alberta

Dr. Hugh M. Horner, deputy premier, minister of transportation announced last Thursday:

1. that the provincial allotment for the "Towns and Villages Streets Assistance Program" will be increased to $8 million in 1979 - a $4 million increase over the 1978 allotment;
2. the introduction of a new $2 million program - "Streets Assistance Program for Hamlets";
3. the introduction of a new "Public Transportation Operating Assistance Grant Program for Towns" - $2 per capita in transportation services assistance for senior citizens, the disabled and the handicapped.

"The experience gained by our towns, villages, municipal districts, counties, and improvement districts, in their streets development in previous programs has indicated a growth in ability to select and manage worthwhile projects. I believe this is a very important example of the solidity of growth in the rural parts of Alberta," said Dr. Horner.

TOWNS & VILLAGES STREETS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

A total of $8 million will be available for the 1979-80 fiscal year - a 100 percent increase over the $4 million now available. Each town and village is eligible for a basic grant of $30,000 plus $60 per capita. For summer villages with a permanent population under 100, the basic grant is $10,000 plus $60 per capita.

"Communities who applied for these grants this year and were unsuccessful as well as the remaining communities who chose not to apply in 1978, will be able to enroll in the program in 1979

or in a following year, as the on-going program is designed to ultimately accommodate all of Alberta's towns and villages," said Dr. Horner. "I expect," added Dr. Horner, "that some 70 towns Please Turn to Page A28

Man killed on highway near Redwater

A Wostok, Alberta man was killed near Redwater while hitch-hiking on Highway 28 last Friday evening.

Dead is Arthur Sydney Prokopchuk, aged 27.

Mr. Prokopchuk's vehicle had gone into the ditch about four miles south and two miles east of Redwater on Hwy. 28. He left his vehicle and began hitch-hiking on the shoulder of the highway. While hitch-hiking, Mr. Prokopchuk was struck by a westbound vehicle.

Redwater RCMP have said that no charges will be laid in the incident.

that he would check it out for a year and then report back to council whether the membership should be renewed. Councillor Berry volunteered his services as an alternate.

BYLAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Quite a lengthy discussion pertaining to the hiring of a bylaw enforcement officer wound up with the majority of councillors in favor of the Public Works Committee obtaining more information. Councillor Kluthe, Lamoureux and Reeve Flynn would like to see the matter dropped. Councillor Van de Walle thought the hiring of a bylaw enforcement officer should be looked at in terms of what can be done to stop the deterioration of municipal roads.

Councillor Kluthe responded that, utilizing CB equipment, the truckers would seldom get caught, once one trucker knew of the enforcement officer's whereabouts.

Councillor Van de Walle commented that he had good response from the provincial highway patrol, and he felt that if the MD maintained "a first name basis" with the patrol, perhaps more enforcement would be carried out.

RESCUE KIT

The M.D. will be applying for a rescue kit made available by Alberta Disaster Services. Items included in the kit would be very handy for emergency services.

ENCOURAGING WORDS

Council seemed surprised, but impressed at the contents of a copy of a letter to Hugh Horner, minister of Transportation. The letter from Virginia Lang of R.R. 1 Busby commented that the M.D. of Sturgeon maintained their section of SR 651 better than the other two governing bodies, who administer to other sections of the same road. The letter pointed out to Dr. Horner that the road was of great importance to the people of the area and that it should be given some priority for upgrading.

In a comment on the letter, Reeve Flynn impressed that roads in the MD travelling east and west should have priority.

UTILITY OFFICER

The utility officer of the MD had asked to move his trailer to the utility land on Hewitt Estates. Councillor Crozier commented that if the caretaker of a school can be housed on school grounds, there should be no reason not to locate a utility officer next to a pump house. The council agreed that the question should be referred to the Executive Committee for further study and then recommendations made to council for their decision.

and villages will share in the 1979 program as compared to the 35 which received assistance in 1978.

Street improvements covered by the funding include grading, graveling, paving, oil treatments, concrete sidewalks, curbs and gutters, roadways, storm sewers or other drainage systems, bridges, traffic signs and signals, and street lighting.

Dr. Horner further noted that, "some communities are experiencing higher than average construction costs because of severe ground conditions or excessive industrial traffic problems. We are prepared to review these special cases and additional provincial support beyond the basic grant may be justified."

The minister also indicated, "that additional care will be taken in the planning of the primary and secondary highway programs to ensure that towns and villages are assisted when these highways enter or pass through communities."

"In doubling the size of this program," said Dr. Horner, "the government acknowledges the increased population, industrial growth, unique construction problems, and regional development in rural Alberta centres. We will be able to assist twice as many towns and villages in 1979 than we were able to in 1978."

NEW HAMLET ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

A new $2 million hamlet streets assistance program is being introduced - $1 million in assistance for hamlets in counties and municipal districts, and $1 million in assistance for hamlets in improvement districts.

"This hamlet program is designed to provide similar improvements as those outlined under the Towns and Villages Streets Assistance Program," said Dr. Horner. "Hamlets with a population 100 or more are eligible for a $30,000 basic grant plus an additional $60 per capita; hamlets with a population between 50 and 100 are eligible for a $10,000 basic grant plus an additional $60 per capita. We are also prepared to review on an individual basis the possible participation in this program of those hamlets with a permanent population of less than 50."

"As hamlets are unincorporated municipalities," said Dr. Horner, "we will be working very closely with the local governing authorities, the municipal district and county councils in determining priority needs, and Alberta Transportation will accept applications from these authorities on a first come, first serve basis."

Alberta Transportation is the road authority in improvement districts. Regional staff will work closely with the various improvement district advisory councils in determining the annual assistance program for hamlets in these jurisdictions.

"The hamlet assistance program is an on-going program," said Dr. Horner, "and all eligible rural hamlets will have an opportunity to participate. As Alberta has 120 hamlets with a population of more than 100 and 350 hamlets with a population of less than 100, this program will significantly improve the quality of life in rural Alberta," added Dr. Horner.

NEW PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION OPERATING ASSISTANCE GRANT PROGRAM

A new $2 per capita grant will be provided to all towns in 1979 to assist in the provision of transportation services for senior citizens, the disabled and the handicapped.

"The grant is unconditional in the sense that we are not earmarking the assistance for a specific transportation facility," said Dr. Horner. "We want our towns to use their own initiative in determining how they can best provide transportation for three groups of Albertans - senior citizens, disabled and handicapped."

Dr. Horner said that, "the towns might establish or assist in the establishment of a particular transportation service, or the towns might use the funds for direct subsidization or other inducements to upgrade existing taxiltransportation services."

"Each town council can best determine its program in this area so long as the funds are used to assist in the transportation of senior citizens, the disabled and handicapped," said Dr. Horner.

A cheque will be forwarded to each town council in the new fiscal year. The $2 per capita grant is an annual grant and will be on-going for the six years from 1979-80 to 1984-85. The grant is based on the most recent census for total town population.

Alcomdale News

CHRISTMAS NOTES:

The Alcomdale Community League held its Christmas party for children of the community Sunday, December 17 with a number of parents and children attending. Santa visited the group and distributed gifts and goodies to all children present.

Christmas Day turned out to be quite mild, which made it a pleasure to go visiting for that special dinner with relatives or friends.

The Melvin Mills family spent Christmas with Mrs. Mills parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Benoit in Edmonton for dinner. Later in the day they visited Mrs. Mills' two grandmothers. New Year's Day they gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mills in Edmonton for the annual Mills' get-together, where a buffet meal was enjoyed by all present.

Carl Moren (home from the High Arctic) and his family spent Christmas with Mrs. Moren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Thurner in Onoway. New Year's Day Mrs. Moren and children, with Mrs. J. Doidge and family, were guests of the Thurners. Also accompanying them was Mr. Doidge's father, J. A. Doidge of Dafoc, Saskatchewan.

James Doidge managed to get home for Christmas dinner late in the evening of that festive day, but had to return to work the next day. His father of Dafoc, Saskatchewan, has been visiting him and his family for the holiday season.

The Ed. Brenneis family held their annual family party on Boxing Day in the Mearns' community centre. Almost all the family of nine children and their families were present. The usual good time was enjoyed by all with a tree, a social evening and meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brenneis of the hamlet were present and on New Year's Day they spent it as is their custom at the home of Mrs. Brenneis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Borle of Villeneuve, where the Borle's home was the gathering place for their children and grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lister and Mrs. Claude Lister entertained members of the family during Christmas and New Year's week. Mr. and Mrs. E. Koch of Onoway and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Lister and family of Fort Saskatchewan, enjoyed their Christmas visit.

The Allan Campbells' also had a family dinner with some of their children and grandchildren for the festive meal. Mr. and Mrs. E. Brison of Morinville and three daughters: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell and two daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Thew and two daughters, all of Edmonton. New Year's Day the J. Burrows family were dinner guests of the Campbells.

The Lloyd Congdons who bought the Lister General Store entertained friends from Edmonton for Christmas dinner. It is their wish to give good service to the community and hope the people will make their wants known and they will do their best to supply them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gill of Westlock were holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. J. M. Bailey.

CURLING NEWS

The Alcomdale Curling

Club opened their season with a bonspiel December 27 to 30, 1978 inclusive. Eleven rinks competed. Winners were: 1st Event - 1st Dick Palmer Rink, 2nd - Glen Anderson Rink, 2nd Event - 1st George Gagnon Rink; 2nd - John Lister Rink. Cash prizes were awarded.

INDEPENDENCE

Christmas Day the Alex Bensons had most of their family home for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. H. Huntley of Edmonton, and their two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Soetaert and family of Villeneuve, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Benson and Mrs. J. M. Bailey of Alcomdale. New Year's Day the Blake Bensons entertained the family for dinner.

The cold spell which commenced just after Boxing Day has been steady, good weather for curling where natural ice is used but isn't conducive to much else. A spell of mild weather would be a pleasant change. A Happy New Year to all.

Agriculture Minister announces new grant program

Agriculture Minister Marvin Moore announced recently a major grant program to help Alberta agricultural societies cover operating expenses.

Effective January 1, 1979, the program will supply grants, equal to 50 percent of the costs of utilities and insurance to a maximum of $5,000 per year, to all Class C and D agricultural societies in the province.

This program follows from the major $75,000 Capital Grant Program introduced by the Provincial Government in 1971. That program resulted in a fourfold increase, from 54 to 214, in the number of active agricultural societies in Alberta, many of which now own and operate major multi-purpose facilities for recreational, cultural and agricultural activities.

The success of these organizations in operating their facilities has been outstanding, says Mr. Moore, however, some have encountered problems from escalating operational expenses. The new program will assist in offsetting these costs.

To obtain the new grant, an agricultural society must actually operate the facilities for which expenses are incurred.

Utility costs will include the monthly charges for water and sewer, fuel oil, propane, natural gas and electricity, but will not include the capital costs of installation or such charges as frontage tax for water and sewer.

All insurance costs will be eligible for the 50 percent grant.

Agricultural societies must maintain monthly records plus retain copies of receipts. Receipts for the 1979 calendar year must be submitted to the Agricultural Societies Branch between January 1, 1980 and February 15, 1980.

No grants will be provided for expenses which have been covered by a project co-operation grant from the Department of Recreation, Parks and Wildlife.

Air Cadets on Parade

No. 524 Sturgeon Air Cadets

By Julie Saunders

On December 26, four cadets took part in the air search for the small plane lost on a flight from Red

Deer. Acting as "spotters" were WO2 F. Hutchings, F.-Sgt. T. McHardy, Sgt. C. Wood and Cpl. P. McCormack. Unfortunately the plane was never found and the search has since been called off.

On January 4, a good number of cadets toured the Airborne museum at Griesbach and found the history of the regiment and the exhibits most interesting. Following the tour the cadets went to Namoo Air Base for supper. Thanks go to the officers who arranged the tour and to the parents who provided the transportation.

With the new year a number of new learning experiences are being offered to cadets, with classes in navigation, engines, radio theory, drill, instructional techniques and possibly self defense, from which the cadets may choose, according to where their interests lie.

Range is held every Sunday morning from 10 - 12 a.m., in the Bon Accord Community Centre.

Swimming will be held this Sunday, January 21, from 3 - 5 p.m. at the Namoo pool. However, hours may revert to the former 4 - 6 p.m., after that date. If participation in the swimming program does not increase, the program will not be continued, so all cadets are urged to attend if possible.

Horse Hill News

By Esther Wallbank

The annual meeting for the Horse Hill Community League will be held on Tuesday, January 23, at 8 p.m. At that time the reports of the various committees and the financial report for 1978 will be given, and election of officers and committees for 1979 will take place. Please be there. Attendance at regular meetings this past year has been very poor. Without people who have indicated their willingness to serve to Mr. Witham, Mr. Wenzel, or Mr. McGeachy, in advance of the meeting, or agree at the meeting to stand for positions, the Community League cannot function. Please give this your consideration.

I would remind you that memberships are now due. Please forward the $6 for your family to Mrs. Mary Ann Duggan, R.R. 6, Edmonton.

The following programs are pending: Silk Flower Arrangements - Mondays, February 19 to March 5; Quilting - Wednesdays, February 21 to March 28; Keep Fit - Tuesdays, February 6 to April 10; Youth Drama for ages 12 - 15 on Tuesdays.

February 6 to March 27 from 4:30 - 6 p.m., Oil Painting on Tuesdays from February 6 to March 20.

If you are interested in any of these activities please call Peggy Wenzel, 973-5783 or Sturgeon Regional Recreation, 939-4317. Deadline for registrations is five days before the course begins.

Myrna Bowditch has already been reserved to teach another session of the "Window Treatment" course in November. She is very busy and we are asking anyone who is interested, to call Barbara Hostyn at 998-2739 and register now, so that if there are not enough people interested, the class can be cancelled at an early date to enable her to plan her schedule. The course is designed to make us aware of what types of window treatment, can be used. We are all aware of pinch pleat drapes, but there are many more interesting things that can be done. Samples can be made during the class which runs for four full days plus preliminary meetings or an actual project undertaken. This course is well worthwhile.

B. (Ted) Sample, director of the Marketing Division for Marketing Alberta. Ted has spent 22 years as a Kinsman and has served as president, deputy-governor and governor. He is a life member of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs an honorary member of three clubs and is presently a member of K-40 Club. Ted has chaired the chartering of one Kinsmen Club and was co-chairman of the chartering of the Sherwood Park Club.

Anyone interested in attending the next meeting please contact Glenn Kristianson or Bill Santrock.

The Kinsmen Club would like to inform any Morinville groups or clubs that it has a Gestetner machine available for use at cost for charitable groups etc. Further information can be obtained from Glenn Kristianson.

There will be a general meeting for all parents of children in the club Thursday, January 25 upstairs in the Multiplex. The topic will be "Carnival - or not?" Since, in the past there has been so much discussion by parents - pro and con, we would really urge you to come to this meeting and voice your opinion.

The young children enjoy the "make believe" aspect of dressing up for the performance and what they have learned during the year can be demonstrated. The two ice shows in the past have shown the public enjoys the show. It is an entertainment that is fast becoming an annual event.

Financially, we usually make a small profit after all the outlay for costumes, lighting etc.

On the other hand, the work and time spent by parents in sewing costumes, organizing different aspects of the show, bringing children to extra practices, is quite demanding. Many feel that constant practice for the carnival takes away valuable ice time from badge work for the younger skaters, and from figures and dance for the advanced skaters. Profits diminish when faced with escalating costs for ice time, lighting and fabric.

With these thoughts in mind, we hope to see you at the meeting. People who can offer to donate their services to help the Carnival Committee will be most appreciated.

Keep up the good work. Your support of the recent raffle and cake sale was terrific!

December "break-in" month for Redwater RCMP

Early in the morning of December 3 the office of the Redwater Hotel was broken into. Further investigation revealed a Redwater resident is responsible. Police are awaiting the outcome of charges laid.

venting further damage to the Bulk Dealership.

If there had not been an investigation or highway traffic check, the blaze most likely would have gone unnoticed during the dark, early morning hours, with disastrous results.

The thief, who is not from this area, was charged and is serving a one year jail term.

BREAK & ENTRY AT GULF

The suspicions of one of our local RCMP during a routine check by the Highway Patrol averted what could have been a major disaster in Redwater.

In the early hours of December 21, Constable J. Funk stopped a vehicle leaving Redwater. When things didn't check out the way they normally should, further investigation found the vehicle had been stolen. The culprit was taken to the RCMP headquarters where questioning revealed he had broken into Centennial Gulf.

Returning to the scene of the crime, it was noted the safe had been removed. The culprit then led police to the site where he had taken it, broken it open and then abandoned it.

On returning to Centennial Gulf for further investigation, a fire had started in the office. A short circuit in the electric wires of the adding machine started the blaze, then carelessly pushed aside by the thief, while removing the safe. Constable Funk extinguished the blaze, pre-

Cubs and Scouts urge you to join

By Mariann Yakubow

The concerns that led Lord Baden-Powell to found the Scout Movement - the need to work with, for, and through the younger generation - has been around as long as mankind. Scouters clubs have been part of the Canadian Scouting scene for a great many years, some operating most successfully and others just limping along from month to month. The successful ones seem to be those that have a purpose for existing and are well supported by its members. Such is the Redwater Cub and Scout Movement, which is pleased to acknowledge the membership of (7) Scouts and (18) Cubs.

Every Tuesday from 6 - 7:30 p.m., the boys take part in such activities as rope tying, games, lectures, demonstrations, and the work required to earn their numerous badges and stars. Other activities that occur during certain times of the year consist of Armistice Day Services, Christmas parties, Father and Son banquets, local overnight camp outs, wiener roasts, hikes, bottle drives, and chocolate sales. An annual highlight ending their active year is a camp away from Redwater.

The membership in the Redwater Scouting organization has increased over the past few years. This organization, we hope, will help your son contribute to the future of our country and people.

Boys between the ages of seven and 15 are welcome to the Redwater 1st Division of the Cubs and Scouts. Join us!

Sturgeon Valley 4H Dairy Club Report

By Christine Kushak
Club Reporter

On December 12, 1978 the Sturgeon Valley 4H Dairy Club held their meeting and Christmas party at the Gibbons' Legion. To start off the evening at 8 p.m. a delicious supper was served. Following the supper a meeting was held. The meeting was led by president, Linda Kushak and pledge led by Cheryl Westra. The treasurer's report was given. Also the membership fees were collected. It was decided at the meeting that peewee members' calves should be born after January 1, 1979. All of our record books, forms, and officer books were handed out. After the meeting was adjourned, Santa Claus and his helper (our club leader Morris Montpellier and assistant leader, Melvin Clark) handed out all the Christmas gifts.

On December 28, 1978 at 1 p.m. at the Briggs farm we held a judging. The judge, Dick Bailey gave a talk at the beginning to refresh our minds as to judging criteria. After this we proceeded to judge a written and an oral class. After the judging we were treated to a hot, delicious lunch by Mrs. Briggs.

On January 9, 1979 at 8 p.m. the club held their monthly meeting at the Gibbons Legion. The meeting was brought to order by president, Linda Kushak and pledge was led by Greg Thimer. To refresh all our memories we were reminded of our public speaking which is to be held on February 11, 1979 at the Gibbons Legion at 1 p.m. There was a discussion regarding whether our bank account should stay in Edmonton or be moved to Gibbons. It was moved and carried that the account remain in Edmonton and that the account be changed to a current from a savings. Also it was moved that we audit our treasurer's report at the end of each year. The club was very proud that Linda Kushak received top junior dairy record book in Alberta. She will be receiving a plaque from the dairymen's association in February. Our meeting was then adjourned. The meeting was followed by a guest speaker, Eric Abell who gave a talk on public speaking. This benefitted the members in many ways by his informative talk. Lunch was served after this informative talk.

Our next meeting is to be held at the Gibbons Legion at 1 p.m. in conjunction with the public speaking on February 11.

The bingo jackpot is now $175 in 53 numbers. Winner of the bonanza was Gordie Green. Free admission to the next bingo were won by Victoria Kushak, Irma Love and Emily Prodaniuk. Play bingo, Sundays at 7:30 p.m. in the Bon Accord Community Centre.

Mini-Mite B's play tournament hockey on Sunday, January 21 from 9 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

The Golden Gems hold a Flea Market at the Jewel Box (just north of the arena) on Sundays from 2 - 4 p.m. If anyone is interested in renting a table they can contact Joan Hill 921-3674, for details.

A ring was found after the New Year's Eve dance at the Cave. If you can identify it you may claim it from Lynda Ross, 921-3785.

Anglican Church Women will meet at the home of Lynda Bland on Wednesday, January 24 at 8 p.m.

Again this year, the Bon Accord community will be enjoying a full month of carnival activities. The weekend of January 27 - 28 will feature minor hockey. Watch for notice of events. February is carnival month. Make plans to enjoy it.

Due to the cold weather last weekend, the bottle drive sponsored by the Cubs was not held but is on again for this weekend from 10 - 12 a.m. Guides will be co-sponsors.

The Last Round Up

Gibbons Senior Citizens held their annual business meeting and election of officers in the Dew Drop Inn on January 11. Sheila Crosbie called the roll to which 37 members answered; there were two visitors.

Emily Oliver gave a resume of the year's activities. Sheila Crosbie gave a report on the 1978 finances and Emily thanked her for her efficiency. A thank you card from Cathie Shaw was acknowledged, then we had a short business meeting selecting new officers. Reg Austin taking the floor.

Emily Oliver was elected president; Mollie Hall, vice president; Katie Brandle, secretary and Sheila Crosbie, treasurer.

The lunch and entertainment committee was re-lected, consisting of Cathie Shaw, convenor, Lillian Austin, Aurele Lamoureux and George Knight who did such a splendid job last year.

Emily Oliver, Cecile Strawnson and Jack Strawnson were elected to attend the Sturgeon Advisory Board at Morinville.

The meeting over, we enjoyed a few games of bingo; Reg Austin calling. A delicious and bountiful lunch was supplied by Katie Morin, Yvonne Pederson and Stella Lamoureux. Thank you ladies.

The next regular meeting will be held January 25 in the Dew Drop Inn commencing at 1:30 sharp. The Dew Drop Inn will be open Thursday, January 18. Films will be shown if available, otherwise games will be played.

Gibbons Sunday School Circle

The first meeting of the new year was held on January 9 at the home of Della Gibbons. The meeting opened with the "Creed". Fourteen members answered roll call.

President Kay Roe was in the chair and Secretary Cindy Williams read the minutes of the last meeting. After some discussion they were adopted as read. Treasurer Marj. Taylor reported on the Seed Cleaning Plant banquet, also gave the treasurer's report. She was authorized to pay the Town of Gibbons account for sidewalk and curbing.

The annual tea and bake sale will be held in the Sunday School the first Saturday in May.

Ilene Storton reported she had a request for the Sunday School Circle to cater for Julie Sprague's wedding on May 19. Plans for this will be discussed at a later date.

Members hope to start quilting soon for Linda and Pat. They both received a number of their quilt blocks at the meeting.

Della and Evelyn served lunch, bringing a pleasant evening to a close.

Good luck to the school students in Gibbons during test week from January 22 to the 26. Hope you all make good grades!

Welcome home to Mr. Earl Yeo who is now home after being in the hospital last week.

Watch for the big United Way variety show to be held on February 11 from 1 to 5 p.m. This promises to be the biggest and best show Gibbons has ever held. There will be dancers, singers, musicians, magicians, and lots of variety for everyone to enjoy. Acts are not only from Gibbons but from all over the area. All acts are donating their time in hopes that enough people will come in and donate to the United Way. This is a community organized program and one which I am sure the whole community will support. Be sure to keep February 11 open and come down and enjoy a really enjoyable afternoon.

Nu-West introduces new consumer symbols

Mr. Irv Just, general manager of the Nu-West Multi-Housing Division, recently announced the introduction of a new series of consumer education symbols designed to assist homeowners.

"Too often the public visits a development and finds that the price is way beyond their means ... or that it's a condominium, not a single family dwelling ... or vice-versa. Not only is this annoying to the public, it's awkward for our sales people, too," he explained.

"We believe it's time someone reduced the frustration of finding the home and the price that people are looking for," said Mr. Just.

All future Nu-West Multi-Housing ads will bear a symbol which will indicate approximate price and clearly identify that these are multi-family homes.

"In the past," added Mr. Just, "some marketers were reluctant to say they had condominiums to sell - but we know that some people want condominiums.

He went on to explain that condominium living is becoming a more appreciated lifestyle in the Edmonton area. For many people, condominiums represent the possible dream offering realistically priced housing.

The new symbols will help simplify choices of price, size and features and will appear in all Nu-West Multi-Housing advertisements.

Are you getting your litre's worth?

Gasoline stations in Edmonton and the rest of Alberta are going metric and at first glance it may appear as though you could fill your gas tank for as little as $3.

This is not the case however, as the prices for gasoline now starting to be displayed outside service stations around the province show the cost per litre, not per gallon.

The Alberta Motor Association (AMA) points out that a good deal of confusion has arisen over the sudden conversion, but motorists are advised to take a few moments and get to know the new system to avoid coming up short next time they

"fill-up."

Under the new system, a 20 gallon gas tank holds 90.80 litres. This converts to approximately 41.2 litres per gallon.

By simply multiplying the posted cost per litre by four, you would come within a few pennies of the cost of gasoline per gallon.

The AMA advises however, that motorists try and get used to the new pricing system and think of their purchases in terms of litres instead of gallons. This eliminates the constant confusion of conversion and provides the motorist with a chance to start shopping for the best price of gas per litre.

By the way, measuring your fuel economy will no longer be done by quoting miles per gallon. It will be done instead by using litres per 100 kilometers. Do you know how many litres per 100 kilometers your car is using? Remember "Less is Best"

Here's a chance to tell off the tube!

At one time or another we all talk back to our television set.

However, this is a frustrating experience because the set never seems to hear us. Early in this new year CBC-TV and the Canadian Association for Adult Education are going to provide an opportunity for Canadians to give feedback to their television sets, and the feedback will be heard. "People Talking Back" scheduled for 6 p.m. (in Alberta) Sunday, February 4 is a live, three hour broadcast to be shown across Canada.

During the program, people will see, hear and talk about topics crucial to the future of Canada including: Dilemmas posed by our Differences; Are Canadians Being Confused by Politicians and the Media?; Uneasiness of our Economy; and Unrest in the Work Place.

The program originating from Edmonton will be hosted by Gordon Pinsent.

How can Albertans get involved in the program?

It is hoped that groups of friends will gather around their home televisions, as in a Farm Rodeo Forum, to discuss the issues as they are raised during the program. These groups will be able to telephone a provincial feed- Please Turn To Page 37
